SHOOT BLACK BEAR IN WOODS NEAR PORTERSVILLE

Bruin Is Treed And Game Warden Brings It Down

Bear Weighs 284 Pounds When Taken Into Portersville

BELIEVED BEAR WAS KILLING SHEEP

Reports Bear Seen Had Been Frequent During Past Week

During the morning a large black bear was shot by J. M. Curts, game warden of Butler county, about a mile north of Portersville, after a crowd of neighbors discovered it, and aided by dogs treed the animal, which has been depleting the flocks of sheep and robbing bee hives between Portersville and Slippery Rock for the last week or so.

Early this morning Lawrence Stewart and his sister Bertha were walking on their way to Portersville Station when they saw what looked like a black cow ambling across the fields. On closer inspection it was discovered that it was a black bear. Word was sent by telephone to the neighbors and the Butler county game warden, J. M. Curts, of Butler, was notified, who hurried out to the scene.

Bear Around Week or More

The neighbors, assisted by several dogs, were able to force the bear to seek refuge in a tree until the warden could arrive. On arrival at the

HELMET FOUND NOT REDFERN'S

(International News Service)

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Oct. 26.—Paul Varner, chairman of the ill-fated Brunswick-to-Brazil flight, said today that an aviator's helmet forwarded to him through the state department from Georgetown, British Guiana, had not belonged to Paul Redfern, the missing flyer.

Redfern was the guest of Varner while he was preparing for the hop to Brazil, and Varner helped him pack. Varner explained that the young pilot carried no headgear other than a green sunshade.

The helmet was picked up near a railroad track in British Guiana and sent to Washington and thence to Brunswick for identification. Redfern was last seen by a ship off the coast of Venezuela, 24 hours after he hopped off on August 26.

Package Contains Bottles Of Water

Detective C. G. Logan and Officer Charles Longstreth were detailed to investigate a suspicious package, which was left at a Grant street store about a week ago.

On examination, it was found to contain a number of quart bottles filled with water. These bottles were wrapped in newspapers.

As far as can be determined, the bottled water was left at the store by individuals, who were evidently looking for a victim to whom they proposed selling the water as liquor.

The men leaving it were to have returned in a short time, but never did. The bottles and the box in which they were held, were removed to the police station, where the owner may secure the same.

Roosevelt On Witness Stand In Oil Trial

Theodore Roosevelt, Son Of Former President, Offers Testimony In Oil Leasing

ANSWERS QUESTIONS WITH FIRM VOICE

Prosecution Seeks To Show Fall And Not Naval Department At Fault

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Theodore Roosevelt, son of the ex-president, and former assistant secretary of the navy, came before the Fall-Sinclair conspiracy trial jury at the call of the prosecution today to bolster up the government's contention that ex-Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall, and not the navy department, played the dominant role in the leasing of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve to Harry F. Sinclair.

With mannerisms similar to those of his father, young "T. R." sat in the witness stand and answered the questions put him by Owen J. Roberts, government counsel.

Roberts asked him first about the navy's "war plans" for storage of naval fuel oil. Roosevelt said the plans called for 45,000,000 barrels in storage.

"Colonel," then asked Roberts, "when did you learn of the leasing of Teapot Dome?"

"The latter part of April, 1922," he replied.

The lease was signed April 7, 1922.

"Prior to that, did you know the reserve was to be leased?" continued Roberts.

"No."

Cross-Examined.

Roberts was satisfied and turned him over to Martin W. Littleton, Sinclair attorney, for cross-examination.

"What were doing from January until the latter part of April, 1922?" asked Littleton.

"I headed the naval experts to the naval disarmament conference and also handled the fight in congress against reduction of the navy."

"And that took all your time?"

"The major part," qualified Roosevelt.

"Then you had nothing to do with the oil leases?"

"No."

Roosevelt was excused and Frank Kistler, Denver oil man, was called.

Kistler said he came to Washington in March, 1922, and saw Judge Finney, assistant secretary of interior, about leasing a section of Teapot Dome.

"What did Finney tell you?" asked Roberts.

"He said he was not prepared to talk about it—that the matter was in the hands of Secretary Fall."

"What did Fall tell you?"

"That he was not ready to consider

Storm Brewing Over Removal Of U. S. Admiral

Action Of Secretary Wilbur In Magruder Case Brings Turmoil

BELIEVE MAGAZINE ARTICLE IS CAUSE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—A storm of no small proportions, reminiscent of the days when Admiral William S. Sims was the stormy petrel of the navy, was brewing today over the summary action of Secretary of the Navy Wilbur in removing Admiral Thomas P. Magruder from command of the navy yard at Philadelphia.

Admiral Magruder's recall was masked by the usual service phrase "for the good of the service," but it is no secret, in Washington or elsewhere that the primary reason was the admiral's criticisms of the present administration of the navy in a recent magazine article.

Wilbur Silent.

"I have nothing to say at this time," was the only comment Secretary Wilbur would make. He said, however, that the correspondence between himself and the admiral would be made public shortly.

After Magruder made his criticisms of the naval administration, Wilbur promptly called upon him to submit "a plan" whereby the navy could be

(International News Service)

LISBON, Portugal, Oct. 26.—Ruth Elder, American girl flyer, whose plane was forced down in the Atlantic while she was attempting a non-stop flight from New York to Paris, remained in bed today suffering from a cold.

Miss Elder and her pilot, George Haldeman, who arrived from the Azores last evening on board the steamship Lima, probably will hop off for Paris tomorrow morning in a plane put at their disposal by Americans.

Miss Elder contracted a cold on shipboard. Her condition is not serious, but she decided to take advantage of the opportunity to remain abed for the rest.

"I am glad to get this chance to rest up before we continue our journey" said Miss Elder.

The welcome given the American girl upon her arrival here was one of the biggest and most sensational Lisbon has ever known. While harbor craft swarmed about the Lima, airplanes circled overhead.

Frances Grayson Plans To Abandon Copenhagen Flight

Woman Flier Denies Story Of Mutiny Aboard "The Dawn"

(International News Service)

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, Maine, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson today was considering calling off her projected flight to Denmark in the airplane "The Dawn," until spring.

Unfavorable weather was in prospect and all was not harmony between Mrs. Grayson and her pilot, Wilmer Stultz, and her navigator, Brice Goldsborough.

Mrs. Grayson, however, ridiculed a story published this morning that there was a "mutiny" aboard "The Dawn" on Sunday during the third unsuccessful try for an overseas flight just before one of the motors became disabled. She reiterated the account, as given exclusively to International News Service on Monday.

That she was surprised and disappointed that Pilot Stultz turned back but that she felt that he as pilot, was in command. "Any person at the controls is in command," she said.

Stultz's version was that he turned back to get a running start to climb a fog bank.

Both Mrs. Grayson and Stultz agreed that it was indeed fortunate that the course of "The Dawn" was reversed, for a short time after the turn one of the motors began to skip and the handsome plane was near disaster.

Reports that Stultz was to be replaced by Clarence Chamberlin of Berndt Balchen were in circulation here today but lacked confirmation.

A new motor for the airship was here today but may be used only to fly "The Dawn" back to Roosevelt Field, L. I.

Italian Liner Goes Down Near Brazilian Coast

Nearly All Of 1,200 Passengers Rescued, Is Latest Message

By ARROXELLAS GALVO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 26.—Loss of life in the sinking of the Italian liner Principessa Mafalda has been small, and possibly there may be but a few members of the crew missing when all the survivors are landed, it was stated officially today.

Official reports stated that the known rescued exceed 1,150 and the agents of the line state that there were but 1,208 persons aboard the vessel.

Messages have been received stating that all first-class passengers have been saved.

An official statement says there are 450 survivors on the steamer Formosa, 500 on the steamer Altona, and 200 on the steamer Empress Star, and an unknown number on the steamer Voltaire. This statement places the lost at 58, without counting those on the Voltaire, so that what at first was reported as one of the worst marine disasters in history now appears to be chiefly another story of heroic rescues at sea.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 26.—The sinking of the Italian liner Principessa Mafalda resulted in a loss of but 68 lives, according to an official message received here today from Bahia.

This dispatch states that more than 1,100 persons have been rescued from the sea where the Italian vessel went down.

Local agents of the Mafalda state there were but 1,208 persons on the ship.

The French steamer Formosa has picked up 720 survivors and it seems probable that the Principe Dudine and other vessels have picked up

Fight Over Roumanian Throne Becoming Bitter

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—The fight over the Roumanian throne, in which former Crown Prince Carol is the central figure is becoming more bitter with the Carolists trying to unite all the opposition factions, said a dispatch from Roumania today.

Former Premier Averescue and M. Jorga have taken leadership in the attempt to form a united front of all the anti-Bratianu forces the largest opposition party, the National Peasant, has not yet made a decisive move. However, leaders of the party announced that they would protest to the the next parliament against retention of martial law, which has been in effect since the war.

Protest also will be made against the arrest of former under secretary of finance Manoilescue, who was seized on the frontier while returning from Paris with four letters from Carol to party leaders.

He is charged with complicity in the plot to place Carol on the throne and it is believed he will be court martialed within a few days.

Censorship of the Roumania press continues.

Premier Bratianu is preparing to address a communication to the party chiefs tomorrow, demanding that the political groups in parliament declare their loyalty to King Michael and the present government to show they are not associated with the Carolist plot.

It is reported that a few politicians have crossed into Bulgaria to avoid arrest.

Its the witches a-calling at Hallowe'en the ghosts of the imps who will soon be around, who muss things up, and who steal your steps, and could tell you where other things might be found. They urge you on to a heap of pranks, and their faces are eery and drawn and black, and they're here today for a little stay, and then they'll be gone and they won't be back 'till another October has rolled around and then they'll be urging you on to play, its ghosts that you hear on the quiet air, the Hallowe'en witches, its sixty today.

Military Issues Are Set Before National Manufacturer's League

National Manufacturers In Annual Convention Hear Prominent Army Speakers

Urges Manufacturers Lend Aid To Government Regarding Ammunition

(International News Service)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 26.—The subject of war-munitions and peace propaganda—occupied a conspicuous position on the program of the National association of manufacturers today in the second session of their annual convention.

While trade statistics were poured on the convention indicating American business still is in a favorable condition despite a slight falling off last year's peak, Col. Hanford MacNider, assistant secretary of war, and Lieut. Coy. C. Seymour Bullock addressed the delegates on military issues.

Col. MacNider, in sounding the warning that ten years is the life of the country's ammunition and that the "ten years are now up", added that, "unless the manufacturers of this country come to the rescue, the War department and the army of the United States will stand helpless for from six to nine months should another war come."

"They will be waiting for ammunition," he said, "we have no munitions to bridge the gap between the last hour of our supply and the day when industry can get under way its quality production. Do you want your sons called to the colors with any such situation confronting you?"

"Woman's Day"

In observing "Woman's Day," Lt. Col. Bullock aimed a stinging rebuke at certain peace propaganda organizations, declaring that women at the head of these organizations are coaxing the nation's mothers to unite with them "while they play with dynamite."

"They know the tenderness of the mother-heart and approach it with a tale of the awful sufferings of soldiers who are wounded in battle." He said, he specifically warned against the "youth movement" sponsored by pacifist leaders seeking to align the country's young men in a pledge not to support the Red Cross in case of war, nor make hospital supplies, nor assist food conservation, nor make ammunitions, subscribe to war bonds or otherwise contribute to the country's defense.

"These pledges say that the youth of the country must go to prison before they will take part in defending their nation from destruction" Col. Bullock said.

Other speakers on the second day's program were: Brig. Gen. Herbert M. Lord, director of the bureau of the budget; Dr. Jeremiah W. Jenks, president of the Alexander Hamilton Institute, who outlined the great American market now wide open in the Far East; Harold A. Ley, president of the Life Extension institute, who warned the manufacturers that "it pays to inspect labor's health as much as to inspect the plant's boilers" and George E. Roberts of the National City bank of New York, who reviewed the great increases in products once regarded as luxuries for the select and now available to the masses.

One of the two Soviet submarines which sank on their first trial has been refloated.

shipwrecked passengers of the Principessa Mafalda.

The steamers Rosset and Mosella are still searching for further survivors.

Cause of Mishap

A message from the Principe Dudine to the Italian embassy says that the Mafalda lost a propellor and that the water rushed in, causing a boiler explosion and the consequent sinking of the vessel. Marine experts here believe that possibly this message indicates that the propellor shaft may have broken, opening the plates of the vessel and thus letting the sea into the hold of the vessel.

Officials of the Navigazione Generale Italian denied reports that the Principessa Mafalda had been sunk by an explosion caused by faulty machinery.

Much comment has been caused here by discussion as to whether the Principessa Mafalda had been experiencing difficulty during her voyage prior to the disaster. She was three days behind her schedule, as advertised here.

Most of the survivors will be landed at Bahia, it is reported.

Naval officials today told the International News Service that according to their advices the explosion aboard the Italian liner occurred at 6:30 p. m. last night and that the vessel did not finally go down until 12:35 a. m. today.

Time for Rescue Work

Notwithstanding the tumult aboard the sinking vessel there should have been ample time for rescue work, naval officials said, and they believe the list of those lost to be far below the original estimates.

The steamer Formosa arrived on the scene of the disaster at nine o'clock. Apparently while the sinking liner was still afloat, and was able to effect a large number of rescues.

The steamer Voltaire of the Lamport and Holt line and the Altona are also reported to have effected some rescues.

The Formosa and other boats arriving on the scene of the disaster did not have sufficient equipment to effect immediate rescues of all those who had gone over the side of the Principessa Mafalda.

The Formosa's boats made continual trips, picking up survivors and then returning to search the seas again.

The Principessa Mafalda was built in 1908 and during the war was used by the Italian government as a troop ship. Her tonnage, according to Lloyds' register, is 9,210. She was 485 feet long and had a 56-foot beam.

Until a few years ago the Mafalda was the fastest liner plying between Italy and South America. The liner made one trip to the United States, touching at New York just before the war broke out in 1914.

Shortly after the war, when the Navigazione Generale Italiana put the vessel in the South American trade, it was reported that she had struck a mine while en route from Buenos Aires to Genoa, foundering with the loss of 700 lives. This report was not true and its source could never be traced.

"Did you have a written application?"

"No. I asked Fall if I should but he said it wasn't necessary; that he would let me know."

"Did he let you know?"

"No."

Littleton, in cross-examination, sought to break down this testimony by showing that Kistler could not have handled it. Kistler admitted he would not have made a contract obligating him to build storage tanks and a 1,000-mile pipeline.

A. L. Beatty of the Texas Oil company was called. He said he saw Fall on March 31, 1922, about getting a lease on Teapot Dome. This was just one week before Fall and Sinclair signed their lease.

"Fall told me at the outset he had a proposition from Sinclair which was satsifactory to him," said Beatty.

"What did you say your company was prepared to do?" asked Roberts.

"I told him we would pay a graduated royalty ranging from one-eighth on wells producing 20 barrels up to 40 per cent in large wells and would exchange fuel oil for crude oil, delivered at gulf and Atlantic coast points. Fall, however, gave no indication as to whether or not this was satisfactory."

POLICE SAY FIVE IDENTIFY MAN AS PEEPING TOM

Police Demand Man Be Examined By Physician Or Commission

Sullivan McIltrot also known as Salvatore McIltrot arrested Tuesday by the police as a suspect in the recent frightening of women in the South and East Side districts has been positively identified by five persons, the police say, as the man who has been peeping in windows, following women and even attacking them.

This morning relatives of McIltrot including his wife, father, a brother and a sister were at the police station seeking to have him released to their care but the police authorities took the position that there was every indication that he was a dangerous person to be at large and declined to do so, at least until the family physician had said that it would be safe.

The police authorities are urging that he be placed in the county jail and a commission appointed for him to determine whether or not, it is safe for him to be allowed at large.

After the roll call of teams, Herbert Peairs, director of the drive, spoke for a few minutes on the campaign in general.

"We are a trifle below the amount that was solicited yesterday," he stated, "and last year at this time we had 4250 subscribers to the chest. This year we have but 2200. This shows that there are many people who were on last year's list who so far have failed to subscribe.

"The teams must get busy and see these people," Mr. Peairs concluded. "Are we going to sit idly by and let Sharon put something over on us? We must make this a house to house canvass, and workers should call at each house, whether cards are on their lists or not. In this way, only, will the campaign be a success."

Birds And Cats Possible Carriers Of Dread Germs?

That the state health authorities of this state, as well as other states, are beginning to look upon birds and cats as possible carriers of the dread disease of infantile paralysis is indicated in the letter received this morning by District Attorney J. Elder Bryan, whose little daughter died a few weeks ago of the disease.

The letter is from Dr. Harold B. Wood, epidemiologist of the State Health Department, and is in the nature of a questionnaire along the lines mentioned.

It asks, among other things, if the little girl had been known to handle a sick or dead sparrow or bird previous to her illness, whether or not a cat had been brought into the home where she was, a dead bird of any kind, whether or not the child or her mother had touched such birds or cat, and whether or not they had had any paralyzed chickens.

Not to the knowledge of District Attorney Bryan had any of these conditions existed.

The above statement is copyrighted by the New York Times Company having appeared in the New York Times for September 28th, last, coming via Wireless from the critical European city, BERLIN.

It is of interest to you because this great artist comes to New Castle this season, being the fifth attraction on the Eudcational Art Society Concert Series. The five additional big attractions on the season series ipcludes MARY LEWIS, GORDON AND JOHNSON, THE GOLDMAN BAND, A BIG POPULAR NIGHT IN APRIL AND which opens the season next TUESDAY NIGHT IN SCOTTISH RITE AUDITORIUM.
THE BEGGAR'S OPERA
Remember that the total cost of only three single admissions plus fifty cents buys a SEASON TICKET in most sections of the Auditorium for all SIX numbers.

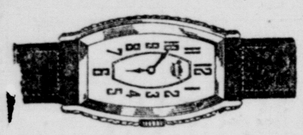

DO YOU?
MOST PEOPLE DON'T KNOW
1—That Junior and Senior High school students of both PUBLIC and PAROCHIAL schools of the city and county, SHARE EQUALLY on the FREE concerts given by the Educational Art Society.
2—That these concerts are paid for BY the Educational Art Society.
3—That MARY LEWIS, Metropolitan Opera House Star, RICHARD CROOKS, Victor Red Seal Artist, who created a sensation in Europe during the past summer, and GORDON AND JOHNSON, who stand without equals in the projection of thrilling sacred programs, WILL BE PRESENTED IN A TOTAL OF SIX CONCERTS FREE OF CHARGE to be divided fairly among the students mentioned above.
4—That these concerts, along with the nominally priced concerts presented by the Art Society to the students, are having a tremendous cultural and educational effect in the right direction, upon the young people of the community.
5—That the FREE concerts are paid for out of TEN PER CENT of the receipts WHICH OTHERWISE WOULD HAVE TO BE SENT OUT OF THE CITY IN GOVERNMENT TAX, IF THESE CONCERTS WERE RUN FOR PROFIT.
6—That the concerts where the students are charged a nominal fee are merely self-supporting.
7—That NO ONE makes a PROFIT in the Educational Art Society.
8—That NO ONE receives a SALARY.
9—That because of this fact, the Art Society is able to get advantageous contracts from the very best and greatest of artists, WHO POSITIVELY HAVE TO REFUSE SIMILAR CONTRACTS TO COMMERCIAL MANAGEMENTS WHO WISH TO EXPLOIT THEIR REPUTATIONS FOR PROFIT.
10—That consequently, these educational concerts will cease unless an organization SIMILAR in PURPOSE to the Art Society continues to exist in the city.
11—That no such organization can exist without the support of the community wherein it functions.
12—That the best way to support such an organization is to purchase a SEASON TICKET.
13—That you are not DONATING anything when you buy a SEASON TICKET, but are actually receiving 50 to 75% more of high class entertainment IN RETURN than you would receive for the same expenditure if the work were run FOR MONEY-MAKING.
14—That this fact was positively demonstrated to you four years ago, when an outside promoter gave the city ONLY THREE concerts at season prices running from $4.40 to $8.25 and individual admissions running from $1.10 to $3.30.
15—That these three concerts were NOT BETTER, IF AS GOOD, as any THREE of the SIX concerts which the Art Society is giving you this season at prices running $4.00, $5.00, $6.50, $8.00, and $10.00 with no tax.
16—That any thoughtful citizen who knows the above facts, appreciates the value in an economic, social, civic, and educational way, of keeping these concerts under local community control, RATHER THAN TO ALLOW THE WORK TO FALL INTO THE HANDS OF COMMERCIAL PROMOTERS.
17—That you can not expect to be solicited IN PERSON by any of the busy people who are endeavoring to make this fourth annual season a success. YOUR DUTY IS PERFECTLY CLEAR, IS IT NOT? However, you may call 630, or 481-R and your ticket will be delivered to you if you wish it.

And Then Again, Most People Don't Know
1 That the Society is open to any citizen who wishes to become a GUARANTOR by signing the pledge card.
2—That any citizen who does so, is eligible for office, has a vote in the organization, and is welcomed into the Society.
3—That the present guarantors includes the names of both judges of Lawrence County, the State Senator from this district, the Assemblyman from the city, the Superintendent of Schools, of some of the ministers of the city and seventy five other citizens WHO SEE THE GREAT VALUE OF THE SOCIETY'S WORK IN THE CITY, and who have observed favorable reactions from the SIXTEEN FREE concerts which the Society gave to the students of the community in past years.
THERE ARE NO SELFISH ULTERIOR MOTIVES. THERE ARE NO CATCHES. THERE ARE NO "INSIDE" FACTS. NO ONE BENEFITS EXCEPT THE CITIZENS, SENIOR AND JUNIOR, OF THIS CITY AND COUNTY.
SPEND YOUR MONEY FOR ENTERTAINMENT JUDICIOUSLY. PUT A SMALL PART OF IT WHERE YOU ARE POSITIVE OF A RETURN, (in addition to your own enjoyment of the concerts,) TO THE COMMUNITY THAT CAN NOT BE MEASURED IN DOLLARS AND CENTS.
Get your season ticket at Snyder Piano Co. TONIGHT until 9:00 p. m. or any other day or evening this week at the same place. Telephone 481-R.

AN AUTO DANGER

CARBON monoxide gas—the deadly fumes thrown off by the exhaust of an automobile—has become so great a menace to the automobile-using public that government agencies and life and accident insurance companies are taking preventative measures. There is a real cause for concern in this invisible peril.

Knowing the evil is half its extinction in this era of invention and scientific research and the motorist may confidently expect the early elimination of the treacherous monoxide gas. Science will eventually solve the problem.

But while the chemists and automobile engineers are scratching their heads over the solution the public can attain the same desired result by the exercise of a little care. Ventilation is the arch enemy of the poisonous exhaust gases. There is danger in running the engine in a closed garage. Keep the garage doors open while the motor is running. There is danger in poorly ventilated vehicular tunnels where automobile traffic is heavy. Construction engineers and the overseers of such tunnels must see to it that the ventilating systems are adequate for their new duty.

Caution has solved many problems created by the growth of the automobile and is just as effective in the monoxide gas problem. Lives are being saved by those organizations which have undertaken to inform the public of this menace.

PLAN FOR UNIVERSAL DRAFT LEGISLATION

THE AMERICAN LEGION'S announced program to press congress for passage of a Universal Draft Act to conscript capital and labor as well as soldiers in time of national emergency seems likely to bring to a public test the plan which was widely indorsed after the World War to put this nation upon a basis of common service for defense.

Seemingly there should be a little opposition to the plan, but the task of formulating a system which congress would enact is certain to be very great. It will require careful and intelligent study, supplementing the work that has been done toward the mobilization of industry in the event of war.

The greatest enemy of a Universal Draft Act is likely to be found in the proverbial apathy of the public to emergency legislation in times when an emergency does not exist.

The United States has an immediate example in the comprehensive legislation in France for universal service. That measure did not excite the public interest which it deserved abroad, but it may receive more careful attention in this country if congress undertakes earnestly to provide for a complete national mobilization.

FOG AIRPLANES' WATERLOO?

DEVELOPMENTS and events in aeronautics have occasioned in this country in recent months more than ordinary interest in the future of air transportation. The subject is on the tongues of the multitudes and is being linked with some of the nation's largest industrial organizations. It is obvious that the public has been convinced that passenger and freight air lines will come before another decade expires.

Europe now has her regular air lines while in this country California and Florida have passenger air lines, the Ford interests are operating a fleet of freight planes and the United States government has established an airmail system. But formidable obstacles still stand in the way of regular passenger service by air in the United States.

It is not that the passenger-carrying plane is not as highly developed in the United States as it is in Europe nor is it that capital and initiative is lacking here. But for atmospheric and geographical handicaps passenger air service would be already established here.

Unlike those sections of Europe over which one may travel by plane, many sections of the United States are made unsafe for air travel by their ruggedness, isolation and unfavorable atmospheric conditions. To the aviator these are serious matters.

Fogs cancel flying dates for European passenger planes and until man invents a fog-penetrating searchlight the future passenger planes of this country will not guarantee their schedules. Railroad transportation is made highly hazardous by fog, and air travel impossible.

In Day's News

Hon. Richard B. Bennett, the new leader of the Conservative party in Canada, has been active in political life since early manhood and though he is still in early middle life he has had abundant experience in public affairs to fit him for the responsibilities of his new position. Mr. Bennett is counted a product of the West, though he was born in New Brunswick and grew to manhood in that Province. Dalhousie University gave him his scholastic training. Choosing law as his profession, he began practice at Chatham, N. B., but soon decided to seek a career in the West. In 1897 he went to Calgary and a year later when only 28 he began his public career as a member of the legislature of the Northwest Territories. When the Province of Alberta was created he became prominent in provincial politics and later sought a broader field with election to the Dominion House of Commons.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:05. Sun rises tomorrow 6:24.

Josephus Daniels wants both the wets and the drys to keep still in the 1928 campaign. Jo is kind of dry himself and perhaps he will start the movement by setting a good example.

Even if the skin of the hippopotamus is two inches thick, we know with a face like he has he needs thick skin.

There is an opening for the political efficient expert who can design a dry platform for a damp candidate.

One thing sure there is no mud slinging in an election in Mexico, but the bullets sing pretty effectively.

A man who can sleep soundly in a hard pew in church ought not to kick at an upper berth in a Pullman.

Women don't think much of their husbands' housekeeping ability and instead of believing the man who fries eggs on the electric iron is a genius she gets very sore. It takes the men to find new uses for old housekeeping tools.

One of the editorial writers of the country bemoans that the American people do not take their politics seriously. With the people in it and the way they act, it is about the biggest joke we have.

A great many physicians in Pennsylvania have had their prescription writing licenses revoked and this ought to make those who still have good fountain pens just about as busy as they want to be, but in a case like this, if you are too busy the state is likely to relieve you of some of the business.

Dwight Morrow, the new ambassador to Mexico, has taken up his work and by previous training and proven ability he ought to make good if the politicians in the senate will give him a chance. How many people in this city know that Ambassador Morrow is a cousin of Dan Morrow of our city? Well he is and that is recommendation enough for all Republicans.

It took a jury in Denver 29 hours to convict a man of manslaughter who shot a state senator to death. From the long time the jury deliberated and the light verdict rendered it looks as though state senators in the west are not held in very much more regard there than in some sections of our own part of the country.

There is said to be plenty of game this year and that is good news to the many people who like to go out and hunt the woods for birds and other wild game. Bird hunting is quite safe, however, for no hunter can shoot another and say he mistook him for a quail or pheasant. A man may look like a deer or bear when sneaking through the woods, but never like a bird.

Applications for motor licenses for 1928 are already mailed out and in the hands of motor car drivers. No one will have any rule or reason for asking for a delay in the time for operating under 1928 tags, when they are out so early. Better get your $10 together and get that new plate in plenty of time.

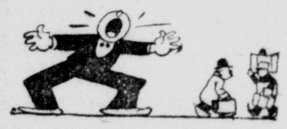

Habitual silence isn't proof of wisdom unless he is a married man.

Physician says that many wrinkles in the face are due to the fact that the phalanges of the great toe are out of alignment, but there is little hope that beauty specialists will begin working along this theory for the simple reason that most beauty specialists don't know what phalanges are nor where to look for them.

"Do you remember" WHEN:
Oyster-stews cost 15 cents, including pickle or pepper-hash?
The man who always referred to the American Civil war as "the Rebellion"?
A girl that sat with her dress up to her knee in a ballroom would have a dozen other girls rush up to her and tell her to "put 'em down"?
A full quarter-cut of pie cost a nickle, including a piece of cheese?
You got six car-tickets for a quarter?
You took a girl to the big school dance and you had to arrange with the local undertaker for the hire of a cab, which, incidentally, cost $4 and was heated with a hot brick?
You could see the best show in town for $1.50 and have a bit to eat afterward without leaving your watch and chain?

WHEN MOTHER WAS A GIRL
She didn't wear skirts so short they let the bare knees peep out.
She didn't paint her face to look like a sign board,
She didn't smoke nor drink, nor do a lot of naughty things—
But mother's not so old she can't learn, and
Though she didn't do a lot of things like those when she was young she sure is showing speed in making up for lost time now.

That children are more trouble than they are worth is no new idea. It has occurred at one time or another to each and every parent. But the same thing is true of all the adjuncts of domesticity, from Airedale pups to iceless refrigerators. The perfect non-irritant is yet to be discovered.

Anyway, a yes-man has more friends than a no-man.

Don't feel alarmed because your boy thinks he is smarter than his dad. He may be right.

Yet all other people would seem as fine as your friends if they liked you as well as your friends do.

We are all much alike, and man will find something to be proud of, if it is only his modesty.

THE CROAKER
Once on the edge of a pleasant pool,
Under the bank where 'twas dark and cool,
Where bushes over the water hung,
And rushes nodded, and grasses swung,
Just where the crick flowed outer the bog,
There lived a grumpy and mean old frog.
Who'd sit all day in the mud and soak
And just do nothing but croak and croak,
Till a blackbird hollered "I say yer know,
What's the matter down there below?
Are you in trouble, er pain, er what?"
The frog sez, "Mine is an orful lot:
Nothing but mud and dirt and slime
For me to look at all the time.
It's a dirty world," so the old fool spoke.
Croakity, croakity, croakity croak!"

"But yer looking down," the blackbird said;
"Lock at the blossoms overhead;
Look at the lovely summer skies;
Look at the bees and butterflies.
Look up, old feller. Why bless your soul,
Yer looking down in a muskrat hole!"
But still with a gurgling sob and choke
The blamed ole critter would only croak.
And a wise old turtle who boarded near,
Sez to the blackbird, "Friend, see here,
Don't shed no tears over him, fer he
Is low-down just 'cause he likes ter be;
He's one er them kind of chumps that's glad
To be so miserable-like and sad;
I'lltell yer something that ain't no joke,
Don't waste yer sorrow on folks that croak."

God's City on a Hill.

The Soil of Florida.
Old Tom of Pontypool.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1927, By N. Y. American, Inc.

Lloyd George, whose weekly articles all intelligent people should read, says labor in England is not as cocksure as it was. "Its jauntiness has disappeared" and with it its "intolerance". He adds that "the temperature of Socialist gatherings is very considerably reduced."

Lloyd George says "labor is beginning to realize that the world cannot be reconstructed by phrases" and that for the building of the "City of God upon a hill" you must have plans and specifications.

That is true, as many sorrowing reformers can testify. But, on the other hand, to "build the City of God upon a hill," you must first determine that you will build that city. An enthusiast must fight FOR THE IDEA, long before the plans and specifications are made in detail, and before the foundation is laid.

Blake, before he died in a miserable dark room, laughed at as "half maniac", wrote:

"Give me my bow of burning gold
Give me my arrows of desire.
Give me my bear, oh, stars, unfold
Give me my chariot of fire.
I will not rest from mortal fight
Or let my sword rust in my hand
'Till I have built Jerusalem.
In England's green and pleasant land."

They laugh at Blake no longer. He never built his Jerusalem in England's green and pleasant land," but he made men think.

Newton had almost finished mathematical calculations that were to prove the accuracy of his formula of gravitation; his emotion was so great that he was unable to continue. An assistant finished the calculations for him.

Henry Ford probably could sympathize with Newton last week, when his first complete new car—body, engine, wheels, paint and all—came off the line, with Ford and his son Edsel looking on. The car was taken to Henry Ford's museum and put beside the 15th million Ford of the old type.

To turn your back on 15 million children that have earned for you 1300 million dollars, and start an entirely new family takes courage. Edison, who says that young men do the real work because they have "greater energy and will to work" will probably make an exception of his friend Henry Ford.

The new car, absolutely different from the old Ford model, makes 50 miles an hour easily, according to a description of the New York Times. 60 miles if desired. Ford has increased his production capacity so that he can turn out 11,000 of the new cars every day, more than three million a year. The maximum of the old car was 8,000 a day.

Sixty thousand cars are needed as samples for the Ford agencies alone, and 375,000 have already been ordered and a down payment made before the cars are ready.

Forty Florida newspapers combined to publish, every two weeks, a special supplement called "The Farm and Groves Section." It will supply people in and out of the state with full information about Florida's agricultural resources and the way to develop them.

Mr. Frank R. Hammett of Jacksonville will have charge of this useful work.

Wealth and fertility unlimited are in Florida's soil.

The "tourist" will always be one of the great Florida crops, but Florida in a few years will look back with wonder to the day when the tourist was the "principal" crop of the state, and its chief financial reliance.

Industries will be established and factories built throughout Florida as they are building now in California.

No one can estimate the future of that great state, only TEMPORARILY set back by real estate booming and foolishness.

"Old Tom" of Pontypool, England's oldest working miner, says: "I am 77 years old. Man and boy, I have been at it 70 years. I started as door tender at 12 cents a day, and now I am a blast firer at $22.50 a week."

The old miner is proud to have worked up, in 70 years, from 12 cents a day to a little more than $1,000 a year—when he gets regular work.

"Everything I have accomplished in life I attribute to slaved, honest, hard work," says he.

Millions of patient workers like "Old Tom" keep the world going, making it possible for the highly prosperous to enjoy their foolishness. And possibly he is as happy as some in this country that have worked up to 22 millions in 70 weeks, instead of working up to $22.50 a week in 70 years.

"Old Tom is vigorous at 77, has no nerves, no bootlegger, no worries about the stock ticker, no desire for anything that he hasn't got. That is not far from happiness, as happiness goes in this world. And he is strong and healthy.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

THE OTHER SIDE

Every once in a while you hear of a man who has been lucky, but you hardly ever hear of the thousands more that have been unlucky.

A man made several hundred thousands the other day gambling at Deauville. He put up a $4,000 chip, and while he stepped to the telephone for six or seven minutes his chip had increased in value until it was over $300,000. Some luck!

But the press account didn't tell you of probably the hundred other people that put up $4,000 chips and lost them all.

You heard of the man breaking the bank at Monte Carlo, but there is no special notice about the hundreds of suckers that lost there.

So when a man has a real estate proposition to make to you he tells you about other people that have made immense fortunes by buying land at a certain place and having it increase in value, but he doesn't tell you about other people who bought land and had it go flooey.

It is very interesting to have a promoter talk to you about making one hundred per cent on your money within a few days.

The only way to be immune from this kind of lure is to make up your mind that you don't want one hundred per cent.

The bait which these get-rich-quick Wallingfords use is the desire that most people have to get something for nothing. If you are satisfied with small and reasonable profits on your capital you are not going to be tempted into fool investments.

It is all right to want to get rich quick—everybody may want this—but the high yield on most investments is accompanied with high risk. If you want to keep your capital and not go to the poor house, don't look for high rates of profit.

People should understand the fundamental law of money, that is, that great profits always mean insecurity. When you are buying a bond that yields you 8 per cent, the chances are even that you will not get your capital back. When you buy a municipal bond that yields 4½ per cent, you know that you will not only get the per cent promised, but you will also receive your capital when it is due.

To be sure, Mr. Ford made astounding profits on his small investment, and General Motors and United States Steel have climbed high, also you could have bought American Telephone & Telegraph stock at a song some years ago and it is now worth $168. That is all true, but that is no reason for risking your small savings.

The only man who can afford to go into a venture with big profits offered is a rich man. Little craft should stay close to the shore.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

LOYALTY

Capital and Labor are considered by the Proletariat as belonging to two hostile camps. The Socialist and his blood brother the Communist never cease to urge Labor to destroy Capital. These fomentors of Class Hatred are making very little headway in the United States. There never was a time when Capital and Labor were more thoroughly in accord. Here and there Labor has been unfortunate in the choice of walking delegates, and because of want of intelligence on the part of the walking delegate, or his desire to more firmly entrench himself in a white collar job, unfortunate strikes have been called, and in many cases unnecessary misery entailed upon Labor, to say nothing of the loss which Capital has sustained, and the losses sustained by the communities in which these strikes occurred.

There are more instances today than ever of the new spirit of co-operation between the employer and the employed. Many believe that the days of Class Hatred and Strife between the two elements have passed forever. While such a condition will never obtain until the Millenium, yet every now and then an instance is afforded of what can be expected when Capital and Labor understand each other. There was one such instance recently.

After many years of almost complete escape from bad accidents the Gulf Mobile and Northern Railroad suffered seven wrecks, one of them very serious, in a single week last August. The wrecks were very costly and were a source of great regret to both the officers and employees. The employees, however, were not content with being merely sympathetic. To show their loyalty train service employees offered to work a day without pay to help meet the unusual expense of the wrecks. The management of the G. M. and N. was game. It declined the offer and thanked the men for their co-operation, and it is now said by President I. B. Pigrepp that the Gulf, Mobile and Northern has the finest bunch of employees of any railroad of the country.

President Pigrepp's statement may be discounted somewhat by the other railroad presidents, but not the loyalty of the men. It would be interesting, however, to hear what these other presidents have got to say in evidence of their men's loyalty.

THE BOY AND THE BOSS

If you will work, the boss will smile
And rush to make it worth your while.

If you will think, the boss will grin
And smooth the way for you to win.

For every boss that I have known
Has loved his workmen as his own.

And nothing pleases him so much
As one who has the master touch.

It is the profit, not the loss
That wins the friendship of the boss.

Only a foolish boss would drop
The best man in his store or shop.

So if he rails at what you do,
The fault's not with the boss, but you.

You say he's frowning all the while!
Do better work and watch him smile!

IN NEW YORK

Frank Crane is an attendant at the parcel checking room in the Pennsylvania station. Undoubtedly he has checked suitcases and bags for many of my readers. He is short, black-haired, jolly fellow, with a serious appearance. He looks not unlike his distinguished namesake, the writing minister.

Mr. Crane has told me several interesting tales of customers who patronize his parcel room, but I think the most amusing is that of a suburbanite who recently checked a large bag of tomatoes.

Suburbanites frequently check their parcels at the station while enduring long waits for trains, so that they may be free to go up to the street and do some more shopping. Then they forget their parcels when they get back to the concourse just in time to catch their train. The parcels remain safely stowed away in the parcel room until the commuter happens to think of them, often many days later.

The man with the bag of tomatoes was one of these absent-minded fellows. He had several parcels, and said nothing about the nature of any of them when he handed them over the counter to Crane.

Ten days later the commuter returned to claim his parcels. The tomatoes had become quite soggy, and had spilled all over two other parcels, fortunately the property of the same customer.

The man was furious. "This is a great way to take care of my parcels!" he shouted. "You let my tomatoes spoil, and then they spoil my wife's new outfit! I've got a notion to sue you for damages!"

The genial Crane was nonplussed. He felt like throwing the tomatoes in the customer's face, but refrained. Instead, he inquired, very politely, "Oh, didn't I tell you that our refrigerator is out of order?"

The enraged customer stuttered a little, gathered up his parcels, including the bag of tomatoes, and strode away.

Hundreds of violins, saxophones, drums and other musical instruments are checked every night, after the shows, at the parcel room in the basement of the Times building, and in other mid-town checking stations. Musicians do not want to carry the bulky cases all the way to their homes, which may be at some distance from the city, and it costs only a dime a day to let the checker worry about the safety of the music-makers.

Fire Chief Points Out Peril Of False Alarms

Charles H. Lynn, chief of the fire department, today expressed himself rather forcibly in a statement to The News concerning the activities, evidently of young men and boys of this city in turning in alarms from boxes as a form of pre-Hallowe'en amusement.

He calls attention to what it might mean to the community, the persons responsible for the false alarms and what the latter may expect if caught in the act.

He said: "The mistaken idea of some of the young men and boys of News Castle in having fun is in the sending in of false fire alarms during the Hallowe'en season. Just stop and think for a minute of what this means. In the first place, if caught, the perpetrator is liable to a $50 fine and 60 days in jail. Then think of the danger to every person concerned, not only to the firemen who are running the apparatus, but to citizens in general. The fireman does not know when the alarm sounds in the station whether it is a false alarm or a big fire and so go as fast as they can with safety to all.

"They are always taking more or less chance of running into some person or another machine at street crossings, thereby causing serious injury or possible death to firemen and citizens. Another thing to consider is that every time one of these false alarms is sounded it puts in jeopardy thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money.

"Only on last Sunday night at the sounding of one of these false alarms there was taken from active service four pieces of apparatus costing approximately $50,000. On answering this false alarm, one company had to cross four railroad tracks, and one of the other pieces three railroad tracks. Another thing to be considered is that when all of this apparatus is put out of service in answering these alarms, there is just as much danger of a real fire starting in the districts that are left unprotected, as there is when the apparatus is in its station. Think, boys, it can just as well be your home as any other. It takes only a few moments for a fire to get a good start and before the other apparatus could get to that district that is left unprotected by the ones answering these false alarms. It may be too late to save a human life or some person's home, in which the savings of a life time have been placed. Think this over, boys, and the next time you have a desire to have some of this kind of most dangerous fun, just think again what it may cost in lives, ruined homes, wrecked fire apparatus and fines and imprisonment for you."

Says Conditions In Florida Are Poor

Elijah Davis, merchant of Wampum, and a son of County Commissioner F. M. Davis, returned yesterday from a trip through Florida. He says that conditions are very bad in that state. There are thousands of vacant houses and in many of the towns he saw scores of vacant storerooms. There is practically no work, residents living in the hope that the winter crop of tourists will bring enough money with them to improve conditions.

Mr. Davis drove back with a friend. He says that he did not see any good farm land until he reached the borders of good old Pennsylvania.

Are you fighting against middle-age?

ONE OF the most critical periods of a woman's life comes between 45 and 50. Most women dread the approach of middle-age because they know, only too well, the depressing ailments it brings.

The best preparation for this period a woman can have is a good physical condition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help her to gain strength and energy. It builds up the appetite and induces natural sleep. The following letters were written by women of middle-age.

AFTER LONG SUFFERING

South Omaha, Nebraska:— "After fifteen years of terrible suffering each month with sick headaches I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have felt my health steadily improving. After taking your medicine for almost a year and a half, I believe I can say the headaches have left me. I also was troubled with nervousness. I am feeling fine now and do all my work myself. I am the mother of six, and manage an eight-room house without anybody to help. I feel that I am entirely well. Mrs. Adolph Bratke, 4316 South 13th St., So. Omaha, Nebraska.

Remember this package. None genuine without the signature of Lydia E. Pinkham.

MRS. BOLLERMAN'S CASE

West Hoboken, N. J.:— "I was troubled with headaches, weakness, flushes of heat to the face and head and loss of appetite. I would often get so weak I could hardly stand. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take the medicine. After the first few bottles I began to feel stronger and could eat better and had fewer headaches. I am a well woman today, and feel like a different person. You may use this letter for every word is true. I will answer any letters sent to me." Mrs. Jennie Bollerman, 611 Eleventh St., Union City, New Jersey.

Protection for Your Service

BLAZING trails over mountain ranges, cutting through forests, then out upon the highways—

Hardy construction "gangs" are replacing the old-time open-wire lines with cables—on short, sturdy poles.

The larger centers are now connected by these storm- and trouble-defying avenues of communication.

Last year nearly seventy thousand miles of wire in cables alone were added to the Bell toll lines in Pennsylvania.

The old enemy of telephone service—sleet storm—is being outgeneraled.

And with a 17% improvement in maintenance, service interruptions are approaching the vanishing point.

Dependability and freedom from interruption are keeping pace with the increased speed of your out-of-town calls.

It's part of the new era in telephone communication.

International Head Of Quota Coming Friday

Other International Officers To Arrive To Attend Ceremonies

PLAN BANQUET AT "THE CASTLETON"

Crawford Oak Ridge Home Will Be Formally Dedicated Sunday

Dr. Mabel H. Palmer of Davenport, Ia., president of Quota International, will arrive in New Castle Friday evening for the inter-cities party to be held Saturday at The Castleton and the formal dedication of Crawford Oakridge home for working girls, which will take place Sunday afternoon, October 30.

Dr. Palmer will be accompanied by Ida May Anthony, also of Davenport, secretary of the international organization.

A telegram was received Tuesday afternoon stating that Adele M. Emin of Providence, R. I., treasurer of the organization, will also be in town early Saturday morning.

"All of the officers of the international organization with the exception of Dr. Olive Cole of Winnipeg, Canada, will be present at the meeting," states Mrs. Elizabeth J. White, who is a director in Quota International. "And all of the 66 clubs will send representatives to New Castle."

Judges for the doll show to be held Friday evening and Saturday afternoon in the Scottish Rite have been selected and are as follows: For the commercial exhibits, Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand, Robert Tully and Robert Meermans will officiate, while the dolls proper will be judged by Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, Mrs. James Ward Reis and Miss May Hoyt.

"The doll show in New Castle was born in 1925," avers Mrs. White, "and it has been nurtured through two successful seasons and has outgrown the experimental stage. The idea has proven practical, and elaborations and improvements are limited only by the individual clubs.

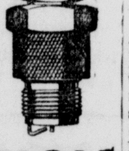

"The main idea in the origination was the revival of the old time days—days when children played with and reared families of dolls. Children used to enter their favorite doll into lists to vie with others for a grand prize. Dolls of the roaring forties competed with the more modern flappers.

"All the little girls in the community from three to 103 years young are urged to make entries for the show."

The speech which Dr. Palmer will make at the dedication of Crawford Oak Ridge will be entitled "Quota Ideal".

Don't Ignore Acid Scalp!

We have all been too close to people whose hair had a noticeable odor. It is due to an acidity that soap and water are powerless to prevent. You may not have acid scalp. Or you may have it and not know it. But dandruff should make you suspicious, and hair that "strings" is a sure sign.

When hair has a dull, "dead" look after curling—and the wave is all out a few hours after use of the iron—it is time to use Danderine. Just a few drops of this highly scientific preparation will check acidity, and give your hair such lovely softness that dressing it will be a delight. It will arrange easily, and stay as you arrange it. Every particle of scale will be dissolved. It makes an amazing difference. And for only thirty-five cents, your druggist will give you a bottle of Danderine that will last for weeks!

Lions Club Members Hear Smith Tell Of Tour Of France

War Veteran Relates Incidents Of Recent Second Visit To Paris

Members of the Lions club heard a very fine descriptive address of conditions in France as found by George L. Smith, ten years ago a doughboy in the great adventure and this year a tourist going again over the scenes that such a short time ago were drenched in human blood.

Speaking before the club of which he is a member Lion Smith at noon Tuesday, October 25 told vividly of the trip across and back emphasizing the changes that have come about since the first journey.

To begin with Lion Smith said the French people gave them just as hearty welcome at LaHavre this year as they did ten years ago and that the French people as a people were very hospitable. Paris, the speaker said is about 50 per cent foreign and the radicals chased from other countries make that city their abode. These are the people that do loud talking and make the seeming threats. Mr. Smith proved himself quite a humorist telling of the things the French have learned from Americans, one being that of making good speed on trains. Ten years ago a man on a bicycle could outdistance a train but now the trains maintain schedules and really go.

The trip over the battlefields was made afoot, that being the only possible way to see them. The French view the war as sacred the Americans lightly and this as evidenced in the attitude and atmosphere of the nation's in the parade.

Germany according to Mr. Smith did not lose the war as they are thrifty and in better shape than any of the other nations. They have learned he stated that they must rely on themselves now and are away forever with the "Gott Mit Uns" which was drilled into them before the war. Mr. Smith also touched on social conditions in Paris and compared them with our own together with the environments which breeds the conditions. Throughout his talk of 40 minutes he held the attention of his listeners who appreciated the talk very much.

As a forerunner of the present "Big Ten" Conference a football league was formed in 1892 by Northwestern University and the Universities of Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota.

Blue And White Flags To Wave

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 26. — Local supporters of the college together with town merchants have started a movement this week to purchase blue and white flags to be placed on the curbs of the main street on "Home Coming Day," next Saturday.

The plan, if it is a success, calls for the purchase of these flags by subscription. They will be pennant-shaped flags of blue and white wool, and will give a real college town atmosphere to the occasion.

The University of Michigan had no regular athletic field previous to 1890.

Game Protector Johnston Says Rabbits Healthy

"All rumors and reports concerning a disease existing among the rabbits of Lawrence county", remarked Frank Johnston, game protector in Lawrence county, to a representative of The News, this morning, "are without foundation in fact."

"Myself and H. J. Sines, division supervisor, have visited all sections of the county and have yet to find a diseased rabbit or a dead rabbit in a field or elsewhere that showed evidence of some sort of contagion as the cause of its death.

"There is every indication that the rabbits of this section are healthy and plentiful and the opening of the hunting season will give the hunters plenty of opportunity of getting some good specimens.

"On Tuesday", concluded Mr. Johnston, "I arrested Adolph Maggi, citizen, and Pedro Semi, unnaturalized resident, hunting out of season near Ellwood City in Beaver county. They had succeeded in bagging some rabbits. These rabbits were examined and were found to be perfectly healthy.

"I hope that the hunters will realize that this report is being circulated from unauthorized sources and is not true."

The two men arrested were taken before Justice of the Peace Addison Courtney of Bridgewater and paid a fine and costs.

NO SOLICITATION FOR COMMUNITY CHEST IN MILLS

Shenango Pottery Only Plant Being Solicited For Chest Fund

"To date there have been just 1,976 contributors to the Community Chest", declared Herbert Peairs, director of the drive, "and they have contributed almost $60,000, or on an average of $29.50 a person."

"While this showing is good, yet we feel that it does not represent the giving power of the citizenry of New Castle. They should give more, and they will give more, I am sure.

"Some persons have had difficulty because persons solicited say that their husbands are doing the giving at the various mills and plants at which they work. The only industry which is being solicited is the Shenango Pottery, and all others are expected to give through their homes."

OVER 3000 PERSONS INSPECT THE CASTLETON

Stockholders' Inspection Night Sees Steady Stream Of Visitors

Many Exclamations Of Surprise At Appointments And Beauty Of Hotel

Over three thousand of New Castle's representative citizens inspected The Castleton, when, for the first time, it was thrown open to the public in connection with the stockholders inspection, late Tuesday afternoon and evening.

All the lights in the house were burning for the gala event, from those in the sub-basement to those on the sixth floor, and everything was in readiness for one of the biggest receptions that New Castle ever had witnessed.

Many Floral Pieces

The lobby was beautifully decorated by floral congratulations from leading citizens of New Castle as well as from the many other hotels in both the American and United chains.

As they entered the door, those who had not yet seen the interior of the hotel were amazed by the luxury that surrounded them. On all sides, exclamations of surprise and wonder were heard.

After going in the main entrance, the guests were greeted in the lobby by Percy L. Craig, George T. Weingartner, O. P. Brown, Howard B. Richards, officials of the New Castle Hotel Company.

The tour first led into the spacious lounge, where the guests were told about the different pieces of furniture, by girls, who had been instructed along that line. Next, the guests saw the main dining room, where officials of the American Hotels corporation explained the various features. At the entrance to the dining room are two wrought iron benches, covered with Chinese red figured brocades. Beside these benches there are wrought iron torches with mica shades and wrought iron smoking stands.

Colonial Idea

In the dining room, the decorations and fixtures are distinctly Colonial. The usual cane back chairs are used in this room.

The tour next led to the kitchen, where the people had a chance to see Joe Graf, chef, and his staff of assistants at work on the banquet, which will be served tonight. Stewart B. Howson, steward, presided over this department and explained the various machines to the guests.

On the second floor, a typical guest room was shown to the visitors. In all, there were fifteen girls who conducted the visitors through the guest rooms, explaining to them every detail of the furnishings. One of the features that each of the guests commented upon was the easy chairs, covered with a small figured mohair, found in every room.

See Mechanical Features.

Into the basement the tour went, where the visitors viewed the mechanical department of the hotel. Here they were shown the boilers used in heating the house, the refrigerating plant, and the room provided for further expansion of the number of guest rooms in the house.

In the lobby, where the guests next found themselves, they were greeted by John L. Slack, manager of The Castleton, William H. Huskamp, chief room clerk, and his staff of assistants.

From the lobby, the visitors entered the Crystal Ball Room, where they were entertained by a special fifteen piece orchestra. Then they inspected the beauty parlor and barber shop and finally the coffee shop, where they were served with refreshments by J. C. Brooks, head waiter and his assistants, augmented with girls who will be waitresses when the coffee shop opens.

"The queer part of serving the refreshments," states Stewart B. Howson, steward of the house, "is the fact that only one cup was broken, and we have missed no silverware. This is strange, and I believe it shows the kind of people that are in New Castle, for, at all the other openings at which I have officiated, much of the silver was lost because of souvenir hunters."

"It was a great inspection," stated John L. Slack, manager, "and I am proud of the way in which it was handled. Everything went off smoothly, without the least friction in any department.

"In fact the only place that the steady stream of visitors was slowed down was in the coffee shop, as there were not seats for everyone.

"And I appreciate the floral expressions of congratulations which were sent by citizens of the town, as well as from other hotels all over the United States.

"Everyone to whom I spoke could not have too much to say about the beauty of The Castleton and what it will mean to the city of New Castle. I am glad that the citizens feel that way, for we all are here to give friendly service both to the city and to the people who make up the city. We feel that we have them with us and we are glad. It is only through cooperation with everyone that we can do that which we so much wish to: and that is serve New Castle."

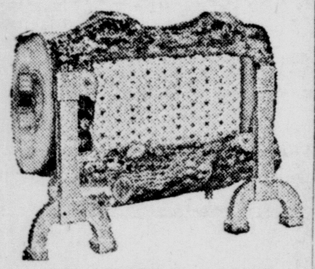

Assisting Mr. Slack with the inspection were John M. Crandall, manager of the Penn-Beaver at Rochester, Pa., Roger S. Creel, manager of the George Mason at Alexandria, Va., Frank B. Lyons, manager of the White Swan at Uniontown, Albert J. Haas, representing the New York office of the American Hotels corporation, Wallace B. Caum of the Penn-Lincoln at Wilkinsburg, and Albert A. Mitchener of Rochester, who made a count of the guests as they came in the door.

Scoring his team's first touchdown for three consecutive seasons is the distinction claimed for George Cole, quarterback of the University of Arkansas eleven.

"Pleased Me More Than Any I Have Used!"

"Which shall I use?" is a perplexing question in most feminine minds regarding the many beauty creams now offered the public. It no longer bothers lovely Beatrice Rose, of New York. She, like thousands of other pretty girls all over America, uses Black and White Cleansing Cream—and recommends it as the last word in daintiness, quality and effectiveness.

"Of all the creams I have ever used," says Miss Rose, "I find Black and White Cleansing Cream to be far superior and the most pleasing to me in every way."

This delightful cream is made from fine, light oils, which never clog or overload the skin, but go instantly into the pores and out again, bringing all impurities and leaving the complexion fresh, clear and smooth.

Black and White Beauty Creations are of a quality acceptable to those who seek the best at prices within the reach of all—25c and 50c.

Great New Chrysler "62" at $1095 gives you more in performance, beauty, comfort, safety and long life than cars of other makes costing many hundreds of dollars more.

Impossible, you say! But a careful comparison of its features against features of sixes of other makes costing even up to $2000 will speedily convince you!

How can this be done, you ask? Chrysler's engineering and manufacturing plan of Standardized Quality, passes on to its cars of lower price the important developments of its own cars of higher price.

As a result in the "62" you get a combination of fine-car features which previously cost several hundred dollars more even in a Chrysler and which are still not available in any other make unless you pay very much more than $1095.

It's easy to convince yourself of this. See the Great New Chrysler "62." Ride in it. Test it in any way you choose. Above all, check these features with those of any six of other make even up to $2000. You will then readily understand the reason for its most sensational public preference.

Great New "62" Prices—Touring Car, $1095; Business Coupe, $1125; 2-door Sedan, $1145; Roadster (with rumble seat), $1175; Coupe (with rumble seat), $1245; 4-door Sedan, $1245; Landau Sedan, $1295; f. o. b. "The Beggar's Opera" Revival Exceeds All Expectations; Will Thrill New Castle

When "The Beggar's Opera" was revived in London, in 1920, everybody expected its success, but none the overwhelming popularity that kept it on the stage at the Lyric Theatre in Hammersmith, London, for a run of over four solid years. It is this very same company that brought this old music play renewed fame in London, that concert Management Arthur Judson has booked for the two hundredth anniversary tour in America, and which will be seen here at the Scottish Rite Auditorium on next Tuesday night.

What happened in London is prophetic of what may happen with this opera in this country. It is a piece that bears repeated seeing and hearing. Nigel Playfair, the English producer, was interviewed towards the end of the first year of its run, and said that he knew many people who had visited the theatre to enjoy it more than fifty times. One person, indeed, held a record, of sixty performances, but he was surpassed by a member of the Gallery First Nighter's Club, who admitted having seen the opera at least seventy eight times. A Beggar's Opera Club was formed in London, no one being eligible for membership unless he had seen the opera at least eight times and promised to attend a few additional performances each month.

All these are tributes to its present and enduring popularity. Mr. Playfair's own later verdict is this: "The principal reason is that it is a very fine work of art, with original English music of the simplest and best description. The real truth of the matter too, is that audiences like to hear melodies which they understand and are a part of the life of a country. Besides the music "The Beggar's Opera" is also a good play. People like its comedy and its satire."

Again started on its career, the modern fame of "The Beggar's Opera" seems destined to reach every nook of the English speaking world during its revival. Over one hundred of the principal cities in the United States and Canada will be visited by this original London company on the tour celebrating the two hundredth anniversary of the first performances of "The Beggar's Opera" a fitting tribute to the survival of the fittest of this first and best musical play.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

UNCLE RASTUS LOSES HIS ROAST

"My whiskers, but it is terrible to be pounced upon without a moment's warning! I could feel the fur on my back standing up stiff as the quills on old Porcupine's body! Thump, thump, thump! Woodpecker could pound no louder than did my heart, and in my ears was the sound of rushing water. And my paws—pooh! I might as well have had only claws like Robin. Usually so strong, suddenly my paws had become weak and I could not make them grasp the branch on which I had been curled up when trouble overtook me!"

Mrs. Possum shuddered as she thought of that twilight hour, long ago.

Then Mrs. Possum stretched out her hind foot and pointed to her toes.

"See! I have five fingers and a thumb," said she, and Peter, who had supposed it would be just like any other creature's paw, was surprised to see that it really looked much like a hand. Mrs. Possum continued:

"When I am not scared to death I can hold on to a branch so tightly that the mightiest Two-Legs cannot shake me off. But as I said, fear made me weak and so my hands—that's what we Possums call them—would not serve me in my time of need. Swish! Plump! I was jerked from my branch and found myself hanging head down, held by my tail. It was not until my captor dropped upon the ground that I got up courage to turn my head and see who held me!

"Round black face—white fringe of hair. There could be no mistake. 'TwasUncle Rastus! I knew him at once.

"'Hee, hee, hee! Ho! ho!' chuckled the old darkey. 'Possum—fat Possum! Yum, yum! Sweetest meat in des yere world! Ah sho am in luck. Ah' gwine to roast mah Possum fo- suppah! Possum am sma'at, but Uncle Rastus sho am sma'ater!'

"Chuckling and shaking his old black head, Uncle Rastus carried me home. When he reached the garden gate what do you suppose he did? Banged my head against a post. Hard, too! My, but it hurt. But after one squeak I never stirred, never even groaned, and Uncle Rastus, thinking he had knocked the breath out of my body, laid me on the cabin floor. I was only holding my breath, though I hadn't lost it all. I peeped from between my eyelids. Right straight ahead of me was an open window! When Uncle Rastus turned to fan the flame over which, in a very few moments he intended to roast me for his supper, I jumped to my feet and ran across that floor like a streak of greased lightning and leaped through that open window."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT

Potato soup is a satisfactory dish with which to start a meal, either luncheon, dinner or supper. There are a number of ways of making potato soup. Sometimes the potatoes are cooked and strained, sometimes they are cut in small pieces and the pieces left whole. Milk, seasoned with butter, almost always forms the "stock" of potato soup.

Potato Soup Crackers
Date Salad
Whole Wheat Bread—Butter
Delicious Pudding Creamed Sauce
Tea Milk

TODAY'S RECIPES

Potato Soup—Four medium sized potatoes cut in thick slices, one onion sliced in enough salted water to cook done. When potatoes are soft add one quart of whole milk, a generous tablespoon of butter, salt and pepper to taste.

Date Salad—Dice apples, dates, marshmallows and nuts, about equal parts, and mix with any good salad dressing, chill and serve on lettuce.

Delicious Pudding—One egg, two tablespoons sugar, two teaspoons butter, one and one-half cups flour sifted twice, one-half cup light colored molasses, one-half cup hot water with butter; add flour sifted with soda. SUGGESTIONS

Brighten With Water Color

One housewife declares she wouldn't be without a few cakes of good quality water color paints. She uses them to touch up broken wallpaper, etc., and tells in the following how she renovated a paper lamp shade. She says: "I had an elaborate yellow lamp shade with black butterflies on it, which I thought I must give up; it was so faded and dusty. But I put a cake of sepia in a little water and with a brush splashed all the shabby parts of the shade. When it was dry I went over it here and there with rose madder. The colors ran into and blended with each other and with the yellow, in a soft effect like autumn leaves, so that it is prettier than ever."

Mother!

Child Gets Sick, Cross, Feverish if Constipated

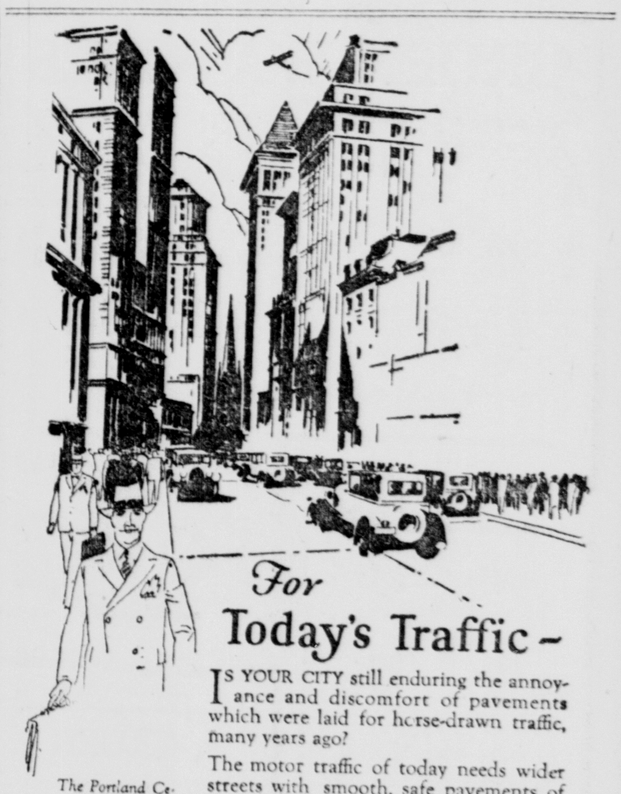

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign the little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Fig Syrup" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious, "fruity laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside cleansing." Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup," then see that it is made by "The California Fig Syrup Company."

Remus Counsel In Chicago To Get Evidence

Deposition Party In Interests Of George L. Remus To Visit Chicago

DEPOSIT BOXES REVEALED EMPTY

By TED TOD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

DETROIT, Oct. 26.—The George L. Remus deposition party, which has been traveling over the country taking testimony the Cincinnati bootlegger wants for his murder trial November 14 for slaying his estranged second wife, will be in Chicago tonight.

Charles Elston, Remus' attorney, notified Harry Pritzker, Chicago attorney for the slayer, to have the several important witnesses he says he has uncovered in Chicago on hand Friday morning.

Elston was openly elated over the results of a day's questions in Lansing and Detroit. He has established, he said, a close connection between the movements of Mrs. Remus and of Franklin Dodge, former Department of Justice agent, with whom Remus says his wife conspired to rob him of his $1,700,000 liquor profits.

Dodge rented a safety deposit box in the American State Bank of Lansing, bank records show on September 23, 1925, and on September 26 Mrs. Remus, as Mrs. A. H. Holmes of Milwaukee, rented another. Dodge transferred his belongings to a larger box May 3, 1926.

Both boxes were opened and found to be empty.

Ruth Remus, daughter of the slain woman, had access to the vault, officials said.

FRESHMEN SHOW "SOCKS" WITH BUNCH OF "FIVES"

WASHINGTON, Pa., Oct. 26.—Sock Inspection day at Washington and Jefferson College here gave the long suffering freshmen an opportunity to hand out a few socks of their own—which they hung gracefully on the eyes of a number of dignified sophomores.

The freshmen lined up as instructed with their trousers rolled up to their knees, for the inspection of the upper classmen. The first year men considerably outnumbered the Sophomores, and when the latter completed the inspection, the trouble started.

After fifteen minutes of free-for-all fighting, the badly battered upper classmen suddenly remembered appointments with their instructors, and hurried off, minus considerable dignity and plus several black eyes.

Gold wire drawn so fine that 3,500 yards weigh only one ounce, was recently exhibited in England.

New Rules For County Christian Endeavorers

At the last Executive committee meeting the Lawrence County Christian Endeavor Union unanimously adopted new rules and regulations concerning the presenting of attendance awards at the semi-annual rallies. These rules were drawn up and read by Rev. Ross M. Haverfield, pastor of the Westfield Presbyterian church and a former president of the Union.

These rules will be used at the coming rally at the Princeton Presbyterian church Friday evening, Otober 28. Among the most important rules are these:

1. A roll of active members must be mailed to the president of the union, Cecil Bailey, New Bedford, before the rally. Teachers, college students and any who are residing for now less than three months outside the local parish may be omitted from this roll.
2. All decisions of the judges will be based on this roll.
3. Failure to submit such a roll automatically eliminates a society for competing for the awards.
4. Two awards are offered, one, a banner for the society having the largest delegation of active members present; the other a shield for the society having the highest percent of active members present.
5. Any society winning either award three times becomes the permanent owner.

State President to Speak.

The president of the State C. E. Union, Mr. McClintock, Pittsburgh, is to make the address at the rally. This is an unusual privilege and honor and an enthusiastic audience is anticipated.

The theme of the rally is "Endeavorers with Christ." This presents a real challenge to every Endeavorer in the county.

After the evening program there will be a social hour and luncheon. This will bring to a happy ending what promises to be one of Lawrence county's best rallies. Every young man and young woman urged to come.

Westminster Man To Be In Charge Of Recasting Of Bell

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 26.—It has been recently discovered that the recasting of Westminster's "Old Main" bell is to be somewhat of a Westminster job in that John O'Donovan, grandfather of Glenn O'Donovan, a Westminster student, is to have charge of the remoulding of the historic bell.

Mr. O'Donovan is the superintendent of the foundry of the Edgar Thompson Steel works of the Carnegie Steel Co., at Braddock, where the bell is at present being recast and mounted on a new trunion.

When the bell has been recast and shipped to New Wilmington it will find its new home high up in the Gothic Tower of "Old Main" Memorial, the new college administration building now in the process of construction here.

LAWRENCE COUNTY FARMERS CAN PRACTICE THIS

(International News Service)

CHARLEROI, Pa., Oct. 26.—Here's a sure cure for chicken thieves—if you have the required patience.

When Henry Fisher, of Fallowfield township, missed several chickens from his roost, he launched an investigation which wound up at the chicken pen of Sam Zervich, of Bentleyville.

There were 100 chickens in the pen, and authorities feared identification of Fisher's flock would be difficult. Fisher assured them otherwise. He walked into the pen and began whistling. Immediately thirteen chickens hurried to his side.

Zervich was arrested and fined before a local justice.

Ride In Elevator Frightens Children

It was on the third floor that the little boy and his mother got on the elevator.

"Going down!" yelled the operator, as the doors closed.

And although the ride was slow, yet the little boy yelled for all he was worth; yelled because he was frightened. Finally his mother picked him up and held him in her arms until the first floor had been reached.

"Do many children yell when they get on your car?" the operator was asked.

"Yes, most of them yell, especially when going down, and they yell because they are scared to death.

"I remember a few days ago a woman on the sixth floor got on the car with two little boys that looked like twins. Promptly as the car started down both of them sat down on the floor and would not move until the first floor had been reached. They did not yell, but they were scared just the same. Their eyes showed it.

"There are a few children who like to ride the car, though, and they think that it is one of the biggest thrills that there is. But they are few.

"Yes, sometimes old ladies scream when the car begins to do down. Once the same lady fainted in the car twice. I did not recognize her the second time she got on the car, or I would have gone slower. And there are many more old ladies who ask me to go slower, even as slow as this old boat is."

Insistent buzzers buzzed, and the interview was cut short.

The Daybook of a New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—In the subway I observed two Japanese in uniform—evidently students on board a visiting training vessel. They knew where they had to go, but they didn't know what subway turnstiles were meant for. There was a colored porter picking up refuse nearby, attired in one of those caps that all trainmen wear. Going up to him, the Japs saluted elaborated, pointed uptown, then shrugged their shoulders and grinned.

The negro said: "Put your money in that turnstile and ride uptown." He pointed in the direction.

Evidently the gesture was the only part of his instructions that the sailors understood, for they immediately headed for the turnstile and started to climb over. The negro pulled them back and began an Indian pow-wow with his hands. When it came to signs and pantomime that porter was a linquist. He pulled out the change in his pocket. The two sailors did the same. He picked out a nickel. One Jap duplicated the move, but the closest coin the other had was a quarter. The porter directed him to get the change at the booth, showed them in what slot to put their money, and once they were safely through the turnstile, directed them to the stairway for uptown trains, and gestured the number of stations they were to ride. The two grateful youths bowed profoundly, saluted again, and disappeared.

One of the biggest devices for gambling in the city takes place weekly. It consists of a polo, whose membership consists almost entirely of members of the printers' and compositors' union. Each week 2,600 numbers are sold, at $3 each. One number is drawn, and the resulting 234 prizes are computed from this. For example: the number drawn always wins $1,000. A similar number coupled with a different serial letter wins anywhere from $100 to $35. Any number within four points of the winner gets from $5 to $3.

At the end of each month, an additional and larger pool is drawn. Members who have entered for the weekly pools in the preceding four weeks, automatically become members of this monthly pool. I ate ripe figs at Moneta's the other night—not the Califrornia variety, but the Italian product, and found the fruit delicious. If you ask for ripe figs in the snobbish uptown markets, you will be given the pulpy dark figs from the Pacific coast, and at a staggering price. But in the neighborhood of Mulberry street, on the fringe of glamorous, dirty Chinatown and the Bowery, you can pick up the green figs from Italian hillsides, at a little less. Down here along Mulberry street also you can buy fine, fruity cheeses and the crusty Italian bread. In Mott street you can get rice cakes and the jasmine tea so beloved by tea table ladies in San Francisco. If you seek variety for your table at a small price, you can do no better than to look for it in the shadow of the new courthouse building, a little to the north of City Hall park. To my mind, this is the most piquant section of New York. Imagine tourists canvassing the self conscious holes of Greenwich Village and leaving City Hall place and St. Andrew's church out of their reckonings!

POLISH TEETH

Firm Tender Gums

Get Pepsodent—Works wonders by clearing film coat from teeth

TEETH seldom are naturally "off color." Most often they're merely coated with a film that forms on teeth and absorbs discolorations from food, smoking, etc. By clearing it off, one's whole appearance may be changed.

Old-type dentifrices failed to remove that film successfully. That's why brushing has failed you. Now leading dentists urge the special film-removing dentifrice, Pepsodent, for this purpose.

Results are quick and surprising. Film coats go. Teeth whiten; sparkle like jewels. Bacteria that thrive in film are combated; tooth decay, gum troubles and pyorrhea thus scientifically fought.

Today get the film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent. Send the coupon for a 10-day supply free. Or . . . purchase full size for a few cents at your druggist's.

The Rip Saw

By BUZ

The hunting season is about here. Clarence Samuels, police officer and hunter, also well known follower of Isaac Walton, has surveyed the country districts with his friend, the dog. He reports rabbits plentiful and every reason that a hunter should get the limit when the season opens. Quail are also quite plentiful, he says.

There are sportsmen and then there are game hogs. The latter do not respect the rights of others in the greed for game. Neither do they respect the law.

Lets hope the sportsman will be the type that prevails this hunting season. It will mean game for all and game for another season.

Farm Agent McCulloch Discusses Cow Feeding

With the beginning of cool weather which marks the beginning of the dry or barn feeding period, the dairymen should be interested in those cows which will return the greatest profit over the feed consumed, says County Agent H. R. McCulloch. Each animal fed is a market for the grain and roughly grown on the farm. Nearly five million tons of hay have been stored in the barns of Pennsylvania's 200,000 farms during the past summer and a large portion of this hay will be marketed through dairy cattle for on eight of every ten of these farms some dairy cows are kept.

Some cows through their milk production return only $10 a ton for the hay that they eat, while others return $20 and through some the dairyman may market his dry roughage for $30 a ton. The same statement holds true for silage and the farm grown grains, because dairy cows differ in their ability to convert products unsuited for human consumption into one of the most highly prized of our human foods.

The Babcock test and the milk scales are the judge and jury in determing a cow's production record. The dairyman himself may weigh and test the milk from each cow, or, in co-operation with his neighbors, he may organize a cow testing association, and employ a man to keep records on his herd.

Woman Charges Bootleggers Shot And Killed Husband

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—"Bootleggers killed him. He knew they would some day. He told me on Sunday that he had been 'threatened again' for the fourth time," today declared Mrs. Lena Rosenblatt, 29 year old wife of Charles Rosenblatt, customs agent whose body, shot through the temple, was found yesterday in a clump of woods in Forest Park.

"They had been after my husband for a long time and he told me that one of the gang had said he would kill him unless my husband ceased his investigation," she told police.

Detectives said they did not agree with his wife that he had been murdered by bootleggers. They said their investigation indicated that Rosenblatt had seated himself alongside the stump of a tree in the park, placed the revolver alongside his head and fired the shot.

So Clean Inside, No Fear of Perspiration Offense, However Over-Heated

Once a person realizes the wonderful properties in cascara, no other laxative in the market would ever be considered.

It's no trick to "clean out the bowels." Dozens of things will do that. But a little natural cascara purifies the system clear through. Cleanses even the pores of your skin. Renders perspiration as inoffensive as so much dew! The old-fashioned way was "salts." They get action, but they take the mucous membrane along with the waste matter! Mineral oils are gentler, but they leave the bowels with a film of poisons for the blood to carry off through the pores. But when you cascarize the system, you get rid of all the poisons by normal muscular action of the bowels.

If you have the habit of taking medicine for constipation, or even for autointoxication, stop it. For a candy cascaret is a delightful form in which to take cascara; children love them, and the taste tempts most grown-ups to have "more."

And what a comfort to know you are in that clean, wholesome condition that does away with any need of deodorants, even in warmest weather! Try a cascaret tonight—see how you feel next day, and for days after! With the skin fresh and fragrant. All druggists, 10c and 25c.

"ANYTHING that gets results, was all the thought I ever gave to laxatives. In those days my perspiration was so acid, it used to rot my clothes. Then a doctor tipped me off to those wonderful little sweeteners—

BRIDE OF FOUR DAYS IS SUICIDE

(International News Service)

GARFIELD, N. J., Oct. 26.—Mrs. Charles Kaiser, 32 years old, a bride of four days, is dead today—a suicide, according to the police.

Mrs. Kaiser's body was found lying across her bed by her mother, Mrs. Ella Kolarcik, with whom Mrs. Kaiser and her husband lived. Death was caused by a bullet wound in the left chest.

Ill health caused Mrs. Kaiser to kill herself, the police said after questioning members of the family.

Mrs. Kolarcik said her daughter wept at the dinner table last night and exclaimed: "Oh, what's the use of living?"

Giving Lifts Is Expensive Habit

MERCER, Pa., Oct. 26.—Giving folks a lift in life is a philosophy to which all of us subscribe but giving them a lift in your auto may prove an expensive habit if the cases filed here for the November Common Pleas term are any criterion. This warning would also have application to those who may take their friends on trips.

There are half a dozen cases listed for hearing in the court now in which the plaintiff is an auto owner who took a friend for a ride or on a trip and an accident occurred, hurting them.

Car owners may be advised by this article that the law holds them responsible for the injury of those riding with them.

Pittsburgh Police Search For Two Mexicans Said Implicated In Stabbing

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 26—Police here searched for two Mexicans today while holding two others in connection with the stabbing of William Swope, 60, water works official at Etna, a suburb, during a holdup last night.

Swope was taken to his home in a serious condition from a stab wound in his right breast.

The water works official told authorities the four Mexicans had demanded money, just as he was leaving the plant for home. He said they apparently were frightened away by a passing automobile.

Braddock Police Seek Father For Shooting Daughter

(International News Service)

BRADDOCK, Pa., Oct. 26.—Police here searched today for Frank Derigji, of this city, accused of shooting his own 14-year-old daughter, Theresa, through the right leg following a family altercation.

Derigji, authorities were told, reprimanded his daughter for attending a picture show, contrary to instructions from her mother. The girl resented the reprimand, according to police reports, the father then rushed into the bed room, secured his gun, and shot the girl, authorities said they were told. Derigji fled after the shooting.

ANOTHER FALSE ALARM OF FIRE

Of all the Hallowe'en stunts that are objectionable, the most serious, is that of ringing in a false alarm on one of the fire alarm boxes of the city.

Last night, at 8:50, such an alarm was turned in from box 311, corner of Crawford and County Line street. There was a suspicion that such might be the case, and a special effort was made to get to the scene and try to secure the perpetrator. He was gone when the firemen arrived there.

There is at present a plan under consideration, which will enable the fire authorities to get the persons turning in the false alarms. When captured, they will be punished severely and in accordance with the provisions of the law, especially, if persons, who should know better.

School Students Clash At Camden

(International News Service)

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 26.—Bricks, stones, milk bottles and policemen's clubs whizzed through the air in Collingswood, N. J., in a pitched battle between 500 students of Camden high school and about the same number from the Collingswood high school.

George Swan, 27, Camden, was the only one arrested. He will get a hearing today.

The Camden youths massed to revenge themselves on Colllingswood, the latter group having ripped the football goal posts from Camden's field on Saturday in celebration of victory.

But when Camden's horde came to Collingswood they found the Collingswood students waiting for them. A detail of 22 policement drove up at the same time and prevented a general riot.

PARKING CARS IN CENTER OF STREET

Barrier placed in the center of North and South Jefferson street where automobiles are parked, once again, in the center of the thoroughfare should be illuminated with danger signals at night. Autos were parked irregularly last night and in some places the machines were a menace to traffic. The arrangement was inaugurated so that traffic along the sidewalks would "iron down" the pavement.

INSURANCE MEN HEAR ADDRESS

W. A. Wilson Of Pittsburgh, Speaks At Meeting At Ellwood Country Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 26.—Wm. A. Wilson, vice president and trust officer of the Bank of Pittsburgh,N. A. delivered an interesting address at the Ellwood Country club last night to the insurance men and members of the bar of Ellwood City who were the guests of the trust department of the First Naional bank.

To his audience of some 50 men Mr. Wilson explained the workings of the insurance trust and how the insurance companies and trust departments of banks could co-operate in the protection offered policy holders.

Mr. Wilson stated that 95 per cent of all life insurance payments were expended within three to five years after the death of the insured and that there was a great need of provisions to conserve life insurance money so that it would better serve the purposes intended by the holders of insurance. He said hat the trust departmens were in a position to fulfill this need in a peculiarly apt manner.

Following Mr. Wilson's address there followed a lively discussion of the many features of life insurance trusts in which many of those present took a very active part.

Representatives of the following life insurance companies were present: Provident Mutual Life Insurance company, Prudential Life Insurance company, Metropolitan Life Insurance company, Western and Southern Life Insurance company, Equitable Life Assurance society of New York, Equitable Life Insurance company of Iowa, Columbus Mutual Life Insurance company and the Travelers Life Insurance company.

The following members of the bar: J. W. Humphrey, M. J. Kraus and R. B. Luke along with the directors officers and employes of the bank were also present.

Masque Party At Strohecker Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 26.—Nineteen friends of Miss Jean Strohecker gathered at her home on Fountain avenue last evening for a Hallowe'en Masquerade party. There were clowns, goblins, sheiks and funny-faces there, and enjoyed a colorful evening of games and contests. Each received a favor, and were made to eat apples off a string. One tiny tot who was too small to figure in that game had her apple tied to the window shade. When she was half way through eating it, the shade flew up, startling her, and causing much mirth among the other guests.

Later delicious refreshments were served by the mother of the little hostess, Mrs. John Strohecker.

Members of the committee are John Clyde, M. A. Bickett, H. A. Donaldson, Dahl Buquo, Tom Marshall, W. B. Schoo, Frank Iseman, Martin Anderson and Dewey Cunningham.

Evangelist Draws Crowds At Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 26.—Rev. McMillan of Evans City is attracting large crowds to the Bell Memorial church with his revival series which is continuing all this week with the exception of Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

His discourse last night was most interesting and on the subject "The Way They Treat Jesus." The singing was led by Harold Marshall and much enjoyed.

Roll call of the Sunday school classes will be called at tonight's meeting. Members of the Allison Memorial Bible class are attending in a body Thursday evening and members of class No. 17 Friday evening.

CHOIR PRACTICE

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 26.—Members of the Trinity Lutheran choir are asked to report on Thursday night of this week, instead of Friday night for rehearsal of sacred music.

SUGGESTIONS

Serve.

Franconia potatoes and browned carrots with Swiss steak.

A bit of chopped pepper with corned beef hash.

Sweet potatoes and sliced apples with pork chops.

Stewed lamb with vegetables en casserole.

Carrots, onions and celery with braised tongue.

Browned onions and string beans with stuffed heart.

Hemstitching.

When sending basted articles to the hemstitchers, mark the lines to be stitched with a decidedly contrasting color so no places will be missed. Silk bastings will pull out much more easily than those done in cotton.

Smooth Cakes.

If the flour in the cake batter is lumpy, put the batter through a fine sieve and then pour it into the tins for baking.

Teachers say many children are held back

by listless mornings —from wrong breakfasts

A long-lasting, quickly-available supply of energy is needed to carry them through their hard morning session

Parents who discuss their children's progress with their teachers are often told of one condition which is a real stumbling-block. Morning listlessness—brought on by poorly-planned breakfasts!

70% of the important work at schools and colleges falls in the morning hours, according to recent nation-wide investigations. Children must be vigorous and wide-awake during those vital hours—or their development will be seriously handicapped.

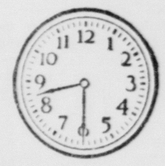

Yet, too often, children are dull—languid—apathetic—and a question from the teacher shows that an inadequate breakfast is to blame.

A good, substantial breakfast of Mother's Oats and milk is one of the best possible ways for a growing child to start the day, dietitians believe.

For normal growth—which usually means normal sleep, normal play and normal progress at school—an abundance of protein is required; and oats, more than any other cereal, provides this indispensable tissue-building substance. In addition, Mother's Oats supplies other growth-elements; minerals and vitamins which many cereals lack.

Children love the flavor of Mother's Oats, too. It is so carefully milled, from such fine selected grain! The same full flavor is obtainable in two forms—the regular Mother's Oats and Quick Mother's Oats, which cooks faster than toast.

CLAPTRAP.

Dean Inge, St. Paul's cathedral, London remarks that government "of, by and for the people" is claptrap. It very often looks that way in this country. But the dean is a short-range pessimist. If democracy is claptrap it is not because there is anything wrong with the idea of democracy of representative government but there is something wrong with the rank and file of people who make up the nation. If the government is claptrap it is not because of the form of government but because of the low level of intelligence. More money for schools and churches, teachers and preachers, book and education, and less for powder and battleships—and government "of, by and for the people" will not be claptrap.

IDEAS TAKE TIME.

A Kansas City educator tells us that if we have an advanced idea we must expect to live 50 years if we hope to see the idea accepted by the rank and file. When Copernicus, a very smart Pole with a Latin name, told his fellows that the earth moved around the sun they gave him a god laugh. Folks laughed for generations. Of course they thought that Copernicus, whose real name was Kappernik, was a little off in the top story. Now, when somebody tells us the earth doesn't move around the sun we think he is crazy. The way people hold to what they think is truth after the so-called truth has been exploded often makes this a rather sorry world.

800 MILES AN HOUR.

Arno Boerner, Dresden, Germany, has invented a new motor which he thinks will send an airplane 800 miles an hour. It is so powerful that an oversized propeller can be used. The plane can be lifted far and fast above storms and in the clear air of upper levels make unbelievable speed. Eight hundred miles an hour would mean a flight from Europe to America in four or five hours.

We of the earth are not quite ready for that sort of thing. From time to time we are reminded that the soul and mind of the average man are not up to the far reaches of inventive genius. We don't quite know what to do with our amazing mechanical progress.

TO AVOID CANCER.

Only near-doctors and half-baked journalists think they know a lot about cancer and the cure of cancer. There is no established cure for cancer and there is no established cause of cancer. Be sure of that. But some things are known. Dr. Elnora Folkmar of Washington is doubtless worth listening to when she says cancer predominates among the overfed class whose diet is relatively rich in starches, fats and proteins. There is much bunk preached about diet but the fact remains that there would probably be less cancer and more good health if people ate more vegetables, raw fruits and cereals and less meat.

To hear some men boast of their modesty.
To see an old man trying to act like a sheik.

Farmers Securing "Garbash' From Plant

Howard Phillips, superintendent of the city garbage plant, today stated that the farmers of Lawrence county are availing themselves of the privilege of getting free "garbash" at the garbage plant for fertilizing their soil. Phillips reported today that two trucks hauled the "garbash" to farms yesterday. "There is lots of 'garbash' for the farmers. All they need do is to apply for it then haul it away," he said today.

Gas in the Stomach Is Truly Dangerous

Gas, Pain, Bloating and a feeling of fullness after eating are almost certain evidence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach.

Too much acid irritates the delicate stomach lining, frequently causing chronic Gastritis and dangerous Ulcers. Food ferments and sours, forming a gas that distends the stomach and often seriously affects the heart.

It is genuine folly to neglect such a condition or to treat with artificial digestive aids that cannot neutralize the stomach acid. A better way is to get from your druggist a few tiny tablets of Bisurated Magnesia and take three or four of them after each meal. This famous but simple and inexpensive stomach sweetner and anti-acid can be depended upon to prove its value in less than five minutes. In most instances, relief comes instantly! Pleasant and perfectly harmless to use—Bisurated Magnesia tablets do give wonderful relief in nine out of ten

What's What in Washington

BY CHARLES R STEWART

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. — The "west" is a good deal sorer and madder than the political bosses realized until just now. The fact is, the bosses don't know as much about the country as they flatter themselves they do.

The big ones are down-easters, anyway.

Occasionally one of them makes a flying trip west, or even stays awhile, like President Coolidge. The folks are hospitable and the tourists come back convinced everything's lovely.

It isn't, necessarily. Politeness to company may be only skin deep.

Western sub-bosses drift into Washington with ominous reports. The super-bosses don't take them very seriously. They prefer not to, for one thing. For another, the situation right around them looks serene enough. They think the sub-bosses are mere alarmists.

* * *

But when the big bosses finally do get scared they get scared all through. They're getting thoroughly scared now.

That is to say, the "ins" are getting scared.

The "outs" are half scared and half hopeful.

If the "west" turns hostile and massacres the "ins"—why, that's great, as far as it goes; so reason the "outs". But suppose, once being in the mood, they turn around then and scalp the "outs", too? The "outs'" big bosses aren't quite prepared to congratulate themselves, prematurely, until they know more about that.

* * *

War whoops have been heard from out in the direction of the corn belt for quite a while, but the "ins'" big bosses said: "It's that same bunch of renegades who acted so ugly four years ago. They took it out in nothing but whooping then. That's as far as they're likely to get with it this time."

Or, to quote the "outs": "They didn't help us a bit in 1924. No use in counting on 'em next year."

It's hardly two weeks since both sides were talking that way. Today there's what looks like an excellent prospect that the whole tribe will jump the reservation. It's no longer a matter of mere chronic bad actors. Plenty of pretty respectable chieftains—senators and others whom the eastern bosses wouldn't have thought it of—are putting on paint and feathers.

* * *

What particularly worries the "ins'" bosses is that this thing appears to have started itself, so to speak.

The movement of 1924 was essentially a one-man affair.

Its leader, the late Senator La Follette, had to drag it along after him. You couldn't call an uprising of that kind very enthusiastic. Outside Wisconsin, perhaps, its time simply hadn't come. That was about the size of it.

This outburst looks spontaneous, which is dangerous.

Is it the beginning of a real western revolt? That's what the leaders would like to know.

In the back of their minds, they're as well aware as anybody that the regular old-line parties have ceased to mean anything. On the strict "q. t.," they're afraid as death of a realignment, because a realignment naturally would mean a terrific shake-up will do to leaderships.

And that, in turn, explains why the "outs'" bosses are about as skeery of the "west's" behavior as the "ins'" leaders are. Momentarily a split in the "ins'" ranks might benefit the "outs", but afterward? That's the question.

Secretary Wilbur Orders Magruder From Naval Post

Admiral Magruder Ordered To Report To Washington By November 5

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—Following closely on the publication of a series of magazine articles in which he criticized the policy of the navy, Admiral Thomas P. Magruder has been recalled from his post as commander of the Philadelphia Navy Yard by Secretary Curtis W. Wilbur.

The admiral said today his recall came as a distinct shock to him.

"Secretary Wilbur's telegram was a hard blow to take," said Magruder, "surely this is not the result of any lack of attention to duty. I have been working here from early in the morning until late at night."

Wilbur gave the admiral until November 5, to wind up his affairs here and report to him in Washington.

Favors New System For Safety Zones

Police Chief Henry Dysart has conferred with Mayor Dunlap and councilmen on the feasibility of abandoning the practice of placing lanterns as warning devices at safety zones and instituting a light system, like that used in front of Higgins store in East Washington street.

The chief says that late at night and in the early hours of the morning automobilists run into the standards holding the red lanterns and smash them and in many instances escape. He believes that the red electric bulb, suspended by a wire, would be more economical and just as safe as the present system.

PLEASANT RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Shoulders droop under weight of years. Young, yet beauty has fled. Cheeks are sallow and drawn. Unsightly pimples. Keep your system clean and you keep the beauty of youth. Its energy. Its irresistible charm. Then life is not a failure.

Clogged bowels and inactive liver cause poisons to seep through the system. Health vanishes and with it beauty and energy. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets will save you from this dark hour. For 20 years they have been prescribed in place of calomel to men and women seeking health and freedom from constipation. They act easily and smoothly. No dangerous griping. Take nightly before retiring. Results will amaze you.

Thousands of men and women would never be without Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. Know them by their olive color. 15c, 30, 60c.

Ruth Snyder Is Impatient, Waits Word Of Appeals

(International News Service)

OSSINING, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Mrs. Ruth Snyder under sentence of death with Henry Judd Gray for the killing of her husband, Albert Snyder today anxiously asked prison authorities whether there was any "good news" for her. Attorneys are arguing her appeal in Albany.

She was told that officials at the prison had heard nothing officially about the appeal but privately it was said that they did not believe the woman's execution, if it occurs, will be before Christmas.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

He was such a little fellow. He might have been 10 years of age or he might have been 14. His old red sweater was ragged and his trousers looked the worse for wear.

Under his arm was a bundle of newspapers, the last few of a big day's business, but business, the weather nor anything else mattered.

Tragedy had entered his life and as he rubbed away the tears with a sleeve of his old red sweater the hardest hearted person in the world would have felt sorry for him.

He had lost his day's receipts, he said between sobs, $1.07 in all. He wasn't asking anybody for a thing, just crying as though his heart would break for that $1.07 represented his capital. Wealth is a relative condition after all, and here was a business man who had gone broke, wiped out as it were.

The man who stood by him questioning him is not a stranger in New Castle and yet he isn't so well known at that. But from now on whenever I see him it's going to be with a new feeling of respect. For after hearing the lad's story he dug down into his pockets and pulled out a 50 cent piece. Another bystander helped make up the difference and the newspaper lad was restored to solvency.

Now maybe the youngster hadn't lost the money at all, perhaps he was just spoofing, but it didn't seem that way, and whether he was or not, the respect for that chap standing by still stands.

Did some roaming around up on Lincoln avenue Tuesday, watching the state highway patrol examine drivers for automobile drivers license. Quite a job those lads have, one that requires patience, finesse and ability. The average driver gets fussed when the state man starts the examination and it's sometimes a job to decide whether the new driver is dumb or just nervous.

They're a fine body of men, the state highway patrol. Help them make Pennsylvania highways safe by cooperating with them.

Two million, six hundred thousand sandwiches is a lot of sandwiches, whether they be hamburgers or westerns. And count a cup of coffee for each of them and you have a lake of coffee large enough to swim in.

There's a little stand up the east side which has stood there for years and years. Twenty-four years, in fact. First Bill Ellis had it, and for the past seven years Earl Gallagher has had it. Sanwiches is the stock in trade, no pie, no salads, no "biff stew". Just sandwiches, good ones too.

An average night's business is about 300 sandwiches, according to the master of ceremonies, the Earl of Gallagher. And it's been that way for years. If you'll yet your pencil out you'll find that the total reaches the figure at the head of this article, or approximately that. Which is a lot of sandwiches.

These autumn days are beautiful, but these autumn nights are often tough for the driver. Down around Montgomery avenue the fog seems to rise every night about 9 o'clock and for the next seven or eight hours it's a tough job trying to get a car thru. One feels so helpless in a fog. Your lights are nearly useless and the fog seems to wrap you in a mantle from which there is no escape.

ARRESTS HUNTER FOR VIOLATING LAW OF SEASON

Frank Johnston, game protector, on Tuesday arrested Stephan Pileggi in Wayne township, when he found him hunting and with a fox squirrel, which he had shot. He was taken before Squire S. Y. Douds of Ellwood City, where he paid a fine and costs on a charge of hunting out of season.

Penn-Lincoln Hotel Manager Plays Trombone

One of the features of the stockholders inspection of The Castleton was the performance of one Wallace B. Caum, manager of the Penn Lincoln at Wilkinsburg who assisted the orchestra during the evening.

It came as a surprise to the managers of the other hotels in the American chain to learn that Mr. Caum was an acomplished trombonist, but when he wrested the horn from a member of the orchestra and played for more than half an hour there were no doubts in their minds. No, he was good.

In addition to helping the orchestra along Mr. Caum rendered several very beautiful trombone solos and they were appreciated very much by the managers, who quickly gathered around the orchestra.

After the solos he played several numbers, reminiscent of the old home town Silver Cornet band in which he modestly admitted that he got his training.

Progressing Rapidly At Jameson Hospital

The sanitary sewer from Wilmington avenue through West Garfield avenue to serve the Jameson Memorial hospital has been laid and West Garfield avenue is being paved with brick.

The hospital structure itself is being built rapidly. The huge affair is spread out over considerable territory and concrete is being poured in forms for what will be the first and second floors of the main section.

Cannot Run Trucks With Mufflers Open

Motorcycle Policeman Ray Richards patrolled North Jefferson street and Wilmington avenue yesterday afternoon watching for trucks operating with "cut-outs" open. He also paid attention to speeders. Recently he stated two trucks made a speedway out of Wilmington avenue and the drivers were arrested.

To guide aviators, large arrows pointed north have been painted on lighthouses on the Atlantic coast.

Western Football Teams Are Strong Early Games Show

Several Important Intersectional Battles On Tap For Saturday

Notre Dame To Battle Georgia Tech; Harvard Tackles Indiana

By MALCOLM ROY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Western football, which has been in the ascendancy since Knute Rockne began building his all-powerful teams at Notre Dame, is making a stronger and more determined effort this year than ever before to demonstrate that it has at last gained the upperhand and has become the ruler of the football world—for the time being, at least.

Despite the fact that the East holds a slight edge in the intersectional battles that already have been played this season, the three big contests in which the East, the South and the Middle West will have distinctive parts on Saturday may see the eastern advantage wiped out and the West taking what it believes to be its rightful place in the domination of the game.

As between the South and the West all questions of superiority for this season should be settled by the Notre Dame-Georgia Tech battle at South Bend, while the Missouri Valley Conference school of football, which holds itself as a separate entity in the western game, will come into action for the first time this season when the powerful Syracuse eleven tackles the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. Then to top off this day of high light intersectional contests, Harvard will play host to the more or less indifferent Indiana team at Cambridge.

Anyone who believes that Notre Dame will have an easy going against Georgia Tech should take pains to revise his opinion, for not since the days when Johnny Heisman and his famous Golden Tornado has Georgia Tech played such football as it has exhibited this season. The southerners have not matched strength with any eleven out of their own bailiwick but what they did to the famous Crimson tide of the University of Alabama a short 10 days ago made history below the Mason and Dixon line.

Notre Dame, with the great Christy Flanagan and the almost equally great Niemic, has another of its cyclonic backfields which strikes with sudden fury and always appears to have something in reserve for an emergency.

Harvard-Indiana

More attention probably will be drawn to the Harvard-Indiana fray than the battle between Nebraska and Syracuse, though insofar as the quality of football is concerned, the struggle in the home city of the late Great Commoner will undoubtedly be far more interesting and instructive than the one in the stadium at Cambridge. Both Syracuse and Nebraska have been defeated in their respective sections, but neither is far removed from being ranked right up with the leaders.

All that prevents Syracuse from enjoying an unblemished record was the margin of a field goal in the game with Penn State on Saturday last, while Nebraska is denied coleadership in the Missouri valley because it failed to kick a goal after touchdown against Missouri. Otherwise, these two elevens are just about as good as the best in their respective sections and a great battle is in prospect.

Despite the cuffings it has received from Purdue and Dartmouth, Harvard should be able to outplay Indiana, which for years has been one of the weakest elevens in the Western Conference. Indiana did not win a conference game last year, and the only bright spot in its record this year is a 14-14 tie game against Minnesota. Harvard certainly has not played impressive football this year, but like the Crimson in 1926, it is the sort of an eleven that may be expected to hit its real stride against such a team as Indiana, and if it does there is no doubt that Arnold Horween will be more than justified in the confidence he has placed in this combination.

Seniors Defeat Sophomores 7-0

The Senior class football team defeated the Sophomores by a score of 7 to 0 in a game played in the Interclass League at Ben Franklin Field on Tuesday afternoon.

Nelson Weygant was the big star for the Seniors, with Hannon and Alexander the best bets for the Sophomores.

Westminster Prepares To Battle Dukes In Home-Coming Game

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 26.—This week promises to be one of the most momentous weeks of October so far as followers of Westminster's gridiron cause are concerned for their Blue and White jerseyed favorites are involved in the renewal of combat with a traditional rival, Duquesne Unuiversity on the college field this Saturday as the featuring event of the annual Home Coming Day program.

The Dukes, coached by Elmer Layden, formerly one of Notre Dame's football flashes are sure to test the United Presbyterians to the limit and mentors Beede and Lawther are overlooking nothing in their effort to prime the squad for the contest.

Yesterday the Westminster squad were sent through a snappy practice in which "Dyke" Beede ironed out a few of the mistakes that had occurred in previous games. Scrimmage is the program for today's practice session.

The game Saturday will be the first encounter in three weeks to be played on the home gridiron and Captain Jimmy Lauder and his cohorts are anxious to avenge the defeat at the hands of the Dukes last season. The visitors will be shown a real battle for the let up last week end has worked wonders for the men and they are engaging energetically the daily practice.

Peabody High Here Saturday

New Castle High Football Team To Play Peabody Here Saturday

VISITORS TO BRING FAST ELEVEN HERE

With two of their major contests out of the way the New Castle High School football team is hard at work this week, in preparation for their battle here Saturday with Peabody High of Pittsburgh.

Following a layoff on Monday the squad returned to work on Tuesday afternoon and went through a heavy program at Franklin Field. The squad is determined to upset the strong Pittsburgh school this weekend, and has entered training with a fighting spirit.

Coach Bridenbaugh plans to give the boys stiff workouts the early part of the week and to wind up the training with a signal drill on Friday afternoon.

Peabody High will bring a fast team to this city to battle the red and black clad warriors. The Pittsburgh team recently tied Steubenville, Ohio 7-7 in a terrific encounter and they are out to upset the dope bucket when they tackle the locals.

Their winning streak snapped by the failure of a kicker's toe, the locals will fight hard to defeat the Pittsburgh boys.

Tech Prepares For Game With West Virginia

Carnegie Tech Warriors Hope To Defeat West Virginia Saturday

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 26.—Smarting under successive defeats at the hands of Washington & Jefferson and University of Pittsburgh, the Carnegie Tartans will invade the stronghold of the West Virginia Mountaineers at Morgantown next Saturday determined to stave off what many think may be a string of four lickings in a row. After the West Virginia tussle next Saturday, life will seem like one hard game after another for the Tartans for on the following week they will face the powerful Violet team of New York university.

Unlike the week before the Pitt game, however, the coming few days will have everybody guessing as to the outcome of the Carnegie-West Virginia clash. Before the game with the Pitt Panthers for the college championship of Pittsburgh, the "dope" had it that the Tartans were due to surrender the gonfalon to their rivals. For the second time in five years the "dope" worked out, and the Gold warriors found themselves on the short end of a 23 to 7 score.

Comparison of the records of the Tartans and Coach Rodgers' horde of Mountaineers leaves only one assumption and that is, that the outcome of the coming clash will be a toss up. Pitt defeated West Virginia 40 to 0 and Pitt trimmed Carnegie 23 to 7. This gives Carnegie a slight edge. On the other hand, West Virginia held the powerful Lafayette eleven to a 7 to 7 score. This dulls whatever edge the comparison of the Pitt scores may seem to give Carnegie.

While the defeat by Pitt was more or less expected, it is an open secret that Carnegie had hoped to hold the Panther to a closer score, and it goes without saying that the Kilties are in for a tough week with their mentors. Carnegie again showed its weakness against any kind of a well executed forward passing attack. Although the coaches have been trying to develop a defense for aerial attacks the play of the Tartans against Pitt showed that a lot remains to be done. The Scots also failed to show much of an offense in either the W. & J. or the Pitt games. This is another weakness that will have the attention of Coaches Wally Steffen and Bob Waddell this week.

Moreover, the offense will be considerably weakened if Moorhead is unable to recover in time from the battering he received last Saturday. In that game Moorhead's work was brilliant and if his services are lost to the team next Saturday, West Virginia's chances will be greatly enhanced in their endeavor to wipe out the stigma of that 20 to 0 trimming last year.

Makes the First

Making first touchdown for the University of Arkansas has come to be a habit with George Cole, quarterback. In 1925, he ran 18 yards for the season's first. Last year, he raced 65 yards for the initial score, and this year he charged down the field 35 yards for the first touchdown.

Garry Herrmann Resigns Post As Club President

Dynamic Leader Of Cincinnati For 25 Years Is Through With Baseball

(International News Service)

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 26.—C. J. McDiarmid, former secretary of the Cincinnati National League Baseball club, today was in charge of the Reds' affairs, as president, having been named by the board of directors to succeed August (Garry) Herrmann, whose resignation was accepted yesterday by the directors.

Herrman for 25 years the directing head of the Reds, submitted his resignation October 10, but it was not acted upon until yesterday. He gave his poor health as the reason for his desire to retire.

No change in the management of the club will be made, club officials said, as Jack Hendricks has another year to go under his two year contract as manager. James P. Orr, Cincinnati business man was elected secretary to succeed McDiarmid.

Herrmann, for twenty-five years chairman of the national baseball commission, yielded that post to Judge K. M. Landis in 1920 when the "baseball czar's" office was created.

More waist, less speed.

MANAGER OF COLLEGE TEAMS

MAXWELL BOVARD

Maxwell Bovard of Sharon, manager of varsity football at Westminster College, is busy this week getting equipment and material ready for the annual homecoming day Saturday when the United Presbyterians meet Duquesne on the home field. Welcome signs for the alumni and the Dukes, extra seating accommodations, and the conditions of the playing field will keep the managerial staff busy. Bovard is a popular member of the senior class and is a member of Kappa Phi Lambda fraternity.

Liberty Five To Meet Thursday

The Liberty Five, last year's junior champions of Lawrence County will hold an important meeting at the home of Johnny Lewis on East Reynolds street at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday night.

Manager Tony Tino is arranging a stiff schedule for the team this winter, and expects to play some of the best teams in this section. The Liberty Five is looking forward to another successful floor season.

The following players are asked to attend the meeting: Neyman, Solomon, Roher, Parker, Lewis, Rogovin, Jenkins, Reiter, Woods, and Coach Jones.

Tony Ostrosky Is Fully Recovered

Tony Ostrosky, star left end of the New Castle High school football team, has fully recovered from his injury suffered in the South High game last Saturday and has been discharged from the Shenango Valley hospital.

Ostrosky was out for practice on Tuesday afternoon, and while he limped somewhat from a "charley-horse", was none the worse for his experiences.

New Castle Not Out Of W. P. I. A. L. Race For Syracuse Trophy

Defeat At Hands Of South High, Youngstown, Fails To Eliminate Local Team

New Castle Has Five Games On Card This Year, Two Victories Already

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND
By ED. FRITZ

Johnny Risko and Tom Heeney meet in Madison Square Garden, New York, tonight. The heavyweights are carded in what is supposed to be the east's biggest battle of the week. Risko milled with Tunney in 1925 and holds victories over Paul Berlenbach and Jack Delaney. Heeney is supposed to be one of the best of the latterday invaders.

August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati club has quit. He is retiring after a reign of 25 years and C. J. McDiarmid has been elected in his place. "Garry's" resignation was prompted by ill health. Herrmann presented his notice when he returned from the world series but it was not accepted until yesterday.

Heinie Groh, veteran infielder and a Pirate this year, has been named manager of the Charlotte club, South Atlantic association. The announcement was made by Felix Hayman, owner of the Charlotte franchise. Groh's salary was not mentioned in the announcement.

New Castle High's W. P. I. A. L. record is as clean as a newly laundered shirt, said Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner today in an interview concerning the recent publication in a Pittsburgh paper that the locals were out of the running for the championship.

The fact of the matter is that New Castle High stands a fine chance of capturing the W. P. I. A. L. championship this season. To date the locals have played two league games with Mars and Donora and the results were 45 to 0 and 58 to 0.

Three league battles are yet to be played including Peabody, Swissvale and Washington High. The Peabody and Swissvale teams should be defeated by the New Castle aggregation but the Washington game here Thanksgiving day looms as the real tussle of the year.

Washington High has been going fine this year and the 1926 W. P. I. A. L. champs are headed toward another title, is the belief of many in the Monongahela valley.

With Wilkinsburg and Har-Brack Union out of the way it apepars as if the New Castle-Washington struggle here on "Turkey Day" will just about settle the supremacy of Western Pennsylvania.

The recent defeat at Youngstown, O., had nothing to do with the league record. The league rules say that to be eliminated from further consideration that a team must drop to one of the league teams.

Crimson Team Delights Fans With Showing

Defeat Of Allegheny Gives Grove City Lots Of Prestige

GROVE CITY, Pa., Oct. 26.—Grove City College students and football fans are very well pleased with the showing of their 1927 football team. The most ardent Grove City supporter did not expect a third successive victory over Allegheny this fall. Eleven men are missing from the sixteen players who were largely instrumental in winning the championship for Grove City the past two years. Six of the eleven have graduated from college. Three of them are still in college but for one reason or other are unable to be members of this year's team. The other two of the eleven men absent this year were dropped from college because of poor scholarship.

Coach Berry is a new man at Grove City, succeeding Charley Bowser who is at Pitt, and he is spending his first year at coaching. He has only twenty-seven men on his varsity squad. Eighteen of the squad are first year men getting their first taste of college football. Only five of the remaining nine players on the squad are letter-men from last season. They are Capt. McConnell, Paterlini, Pflug, Weidman and Rankin. Of these five lettermen, only four are playing regularly. Under the circumstances, Grove City is especially proud of her record so far this season which shows but one defeat and that at the hands of Pitt, one of the strongest elevens in the entire country.

There is generally more discord in a church choir than the music would indicate.

SORDS POINTS

Another Old Head For Uncle Robbie

By JACK SORDS.

Brooklyn is getting to be the dumping grounds for all the fading stars who have not entirely outlived their usefulness. Dave Bancroft is the latest of the near "has beens" to join his slipping brothers.

Dave fell far below his usual high playing standards this year. He fielded brilliantly at times but was much weaker with the stick than he was when he played short for the Giants, winding up the season with the sickly average of .243. Maybe the burden of being manager had something to do with it. At that he failed to land the Braves in the first division in four tries. He finished eighth in 1924, fifth in 1925, and seventh this last season.

Bancroft, 35 years old has just completed his 13th season as a major leaguer. He made his professional debut in 1909 in the Minnesota-Wisconsin league and joined Portland of the Coast league in 1912 where he played three years before being sold to the Phillies. In 1920 he went to the Giants in a deal that sent Art Fletcher and Pitcher Hubbell to the Phils. The Giants let him go to the Braves in 1924 to succeed Fred Mitchell as manager, trading the shortstop along with Bill Cunningham and Casey Stengel for Joe Oeschger and Bill Southworth.

Some of the men he joins who are nearing the end of activity in uniform are:

Max Carey, 36; Bill Doak, 36; Hank De Berry, 35; Dazzy Vance, 34; and Jesse Petty, 33.

The way things stand now Dave will hold down the shortstop position for Brooklyn and he may be the making of Horace Partridge youthful star who seems to need only an old head to work alongside of him.

The Hoosier Coach — By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1927, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

Well, Harvard plays Indiana Saturday and folks are wondering if the Cantabs are going to be beaten twice in one season by Western Conference teams. At first glance Indiana appears to be one of the weakest of the Big Ten outfits this year as they were beaten 13 to 0 by Chicago and Chicago hadn't won a conference game since 1925. But no one who knows Pat Page the Hoosier coach will concede Johnny Harvard a cinch in the coming intersectional battle.

For Harlan Orville Page is a fighter all the way through and he has the knack of instilling his own aggressiveness into his teams before an important game. As a student at Chicago he played end on the team for two years and in 1909 was captain and quarterback. Following Eckersall and Steffen as pilot of Stagg's Maroons was no easy job but little Pat by his gameness, fiery zeal and all-around ability usually came off the field after each game covered with grime—and glory.

Nine sweaters did Pat win in football, basketball and baseball. I wrote last January about a trick goal that Pat made against Penn in 1908 shooting the ball between his legs when knocked off his balance and winning the game in a final minute of play. Page's punting was like that too, he'd just throw the ball up in the air any old way and kick it with his left foot and oh boy how she would travel! Pat also shone at passing and receiving passes and it was his left handed heave to Schommer that tied the Cornell game about 1909.

After ten years on the Midway as basketball and baseball coach Pat went to Butler where he had remarkable success with so small an institution. His team beat Illinois at football in 1921—so look out Harvard.

Feg Murray Says.

The following are captions used with action photos of a cricket match in an English illustrated magazine; "W. M. Woodful hooks a short ball off his face"; "T. J. E. Andrews puts a ball close in on the off"; "Gregory skies a ball on the sticky wicket"; "Collins was snubbed in the slips"; and "E Tyldesley gets a shot through short leg."

Jolly old game this cricket!

Citizens League Vexed At King

Missing Vice Crusader Will Likely Be Dropped By Citizens League

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 26.—"Unless he can clear himself of embarrassments, as well as actual guilt in wrongdoing, his services are no longer needed or desired," said Dr. J. Alvin Orr, head of the Citizens league, today in discussing the latest disappearance of William L. King, the league's vice-crusading executive secretary.

Dr. Orr last heard from King on September 19, he said, while the latter was in Erie appearing as a government witness in one of the prosecutions sponsored by the league. After the court session, King was to have a two weeks leave of absence, but a letter written to him by Dr. Orr since the leave expired has not been answered.

Rachel Carr King, who became the bride of the vice crusader during his first disappearance in July, wrote to Dr. Orr from Reno, Nev., on Oct. 12, he said, the letter indicating that there were difficulties between Mr. and Mrs. King.

Efforts to locate King since have failed, but G. B. Hill, director of the league, expressed confidence in the missing crusader, a former Des Moines lawyer.

"Until there is evidence to the contrary," said Hill, "I will stand behind King. It would be impossible to give all the facts until we hear from Mr. and Mrs. King."

Steamer Maurice R. Thurlow Reported Water-Logged And Sinking

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The American ship Maurice R. Thurslow of Boston, which was previously reported helpless off the Nova Scotia coast, is believed to have been lost with all on board, according to a message from the Cape Sable wireless station to Lloyds today.

The vessel was reported water-logged with all her sails and life boats missing in latitude 38.5 north, longitude 66.57 west. Later she disappeared entirely.

Rose Carries No. 13 Thru To Victory

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 26. — Superstition has no place in the minds of the men of the Westminster cross country team according to reports from coach R. X. Graham. In the recent meet at Geneva which the Blue and White team won, captain Wes Rose of the Westminster team ran through to an easy second place wearing the universally shunned number 13 on his jersey.

However "Old Jinx Superstition" did come into his own when he worked his wiles with the Geneva team. It has always been more or less of a rite for athletes to shun clean new jerseys, but the Geneva harriers boldly ignored this rite and started the race with brand new suits. The fatality of this procedure and the consequent victory of "Old Jinx" was illustrated in Westminster's easy win.

At the hospital where they were taken it was found that the Delish and Balloon girls were internally injured.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

There's no "time out" for Buick

The referee's whistle shrills . . . "time out!" . . . The game halts pending a player's return to the line-up.

"Time out" is never called for Buick—Buick is always "in the game"—never "on the side lines". If there is a "long run" to be made, you can depend on Buick to reach the "goal".

When you attend the big football games this year, notice the predominance of Buicks—for men and women who like action, like Buick.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 26.—Having opened its new mammoth stadium with a victory over Ohio state, Michigan university now mothers hopes for further commemorating the occasion by winning the Big Ten championship and leaving for the history of the year, along with the completion of the stadium, a record that will somewhat approach that of Hurry Up Yost's old teams. This is the spirit I find as I linger here a day or two after the dedication.

Yost it was who made Michigan ruler of the west. Yost it was who builded football at Michigan to the point where its popularity demanded and is expected to pay for a million dollar amphitheater. So what could be more fitting than that the Wolverine football team add to the glory that is Yost's by giving his love a great football team—and a championship one.

Michigan now leads the pack as favorite in the race for the Big Ten title. A few short weeks ago Minnesota, Northwestern and even Ohio State were conceded better chances.

Ohio State has been whipped twice—by Michigan and Northwestern. Illinois has humbled Northwestern. Little Indiana smeared Minnesota's record with a tie.

Now Michigan has the edge—but faces a terrific schedule in trying to keep her record clear.

First comes Illinois. Then Chicago. Then—after the Navy—Minnesota.

Illinois' victory over Northwestern thrusts the Illini into the thick of the fight. Chicago's emphatic victory over Pennsylvania, after repeated defeats in the intersectional game, boosts the westerners' stock.

And Minnesota's 38 to 0 victory over Iowa, after the Indiana debacle, indicates that Herb Joesting and his crew are out for blood.

But Michigan followers have high hopes.

Michigan has not been scored on to date—in meeting Wisconsin and State of the conference, as well as the lesser lights earlier.

Ohio State threatened the Wolverine goal but once—after scoring on Northwestern.

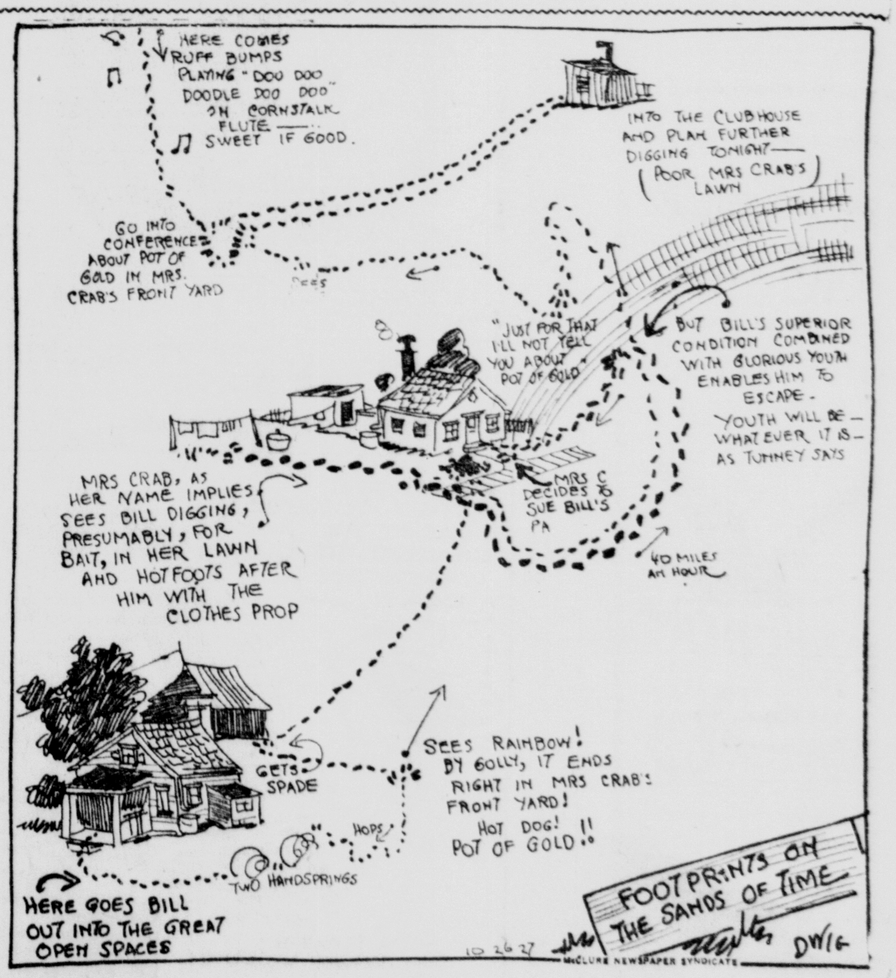

It looks like a great year on the field to climax a great year in building achievements at Michigan.

Participation in outdoor sports by all classes of the population is said to have increased several hundredfold in Austria since the war. Fields of sport limited to a comparatively few privileged persons before the war are now enjoyed by the masses, and Austria is rapidly becoming one of the most enthusiastic sport centers in continental Europe.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Though the 6-point closing rally in General Motors on Tuesday elliminated a good portion of the short interest in the stocks, bears received a decided shock in the enormous increase in the earnings of the corporation in the third quarter of 1927, and the stock jumped an additional 3 points in the early trading today.

A stronger tone was also in evidence in the rails and specialties at the beginning of trading, and representative investment rails like Chesapeake and Ohio, New York Central, and Baltimore & Ohio moved up 1 to 4 points. The non-dividend rails also showed the effect of good buying demand. Recoveries from Monday's low in this section ranged all the way from 2 to 8 points, with New Haven, Western Maryland, Wabash andother well-known share participating.

Demand Governor Fisher Put Stop To Sunday Football

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 26.—A resolution presented at the meeting of the Presbyterian synod and passed unanimously today, requesting Governor Fisher to send a detail of state constabulary to Clifton Heights, Delaware county, to stop the commercialized football games there next Sunday, will be forwarded to Fisher tonight.

The resolution was presented by Rev. A. L. Latham, pastor of the Third Presbyterian church of Chester.

"The Sabbath has been most flagrantly violated by these Sunday football games," the resolution said.

"The prosecuting attorney and the sheriff have refused to act, and the synod therefore earnestly but respectfully requests that they be either made to act or that state constabulary be sent to Clifton Heights to stop the game," the resolution ended.

Youthful Pastor Refuses To Quit

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 26.—The case of the Rev. Andrew B. Lemke, 28, who refuses to be ousted as pastor of the Tower Hill Christian church, may be drawn into court if he attempts to assume the pulpit next Sunday, it was learned today.

Lemke's action in favoring the admission to church membership of several unimmersed persons started the controversy which resulted in the minister's dismissal recently by the Western Pennsylvania Christian Missionary society which sponsors the Tower Hill church.

The minister refused to recognize the society's power of removal and insisted that he be allowed to continue as head of the Tower Hill church.

Testifies Fall Made Freeze-Out Of Teapot Dome

Witness Testifies As To Secrecy Surrounding Oil Lease

International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall made a freeze-out proposition of his deal to lease the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve to Harry F. Sinclair, according to testimony of witnesses today at the conspiracy trial of the two men indicted.

So secretly did he negotiate that Birch Helms of the Texas Pacific Coal and Gas Company came to him three days after the Sinclair lease was signed seeking to aid on Teapot Dome. The secretary said he would be glad to entertain a proposition, suggesting it be submitted to him at his New Mexico ranch. Fall went to the ranch and wired Helms "Teapot Dome is closed", after the oil man had read it in the paper.

In another instance, just a month before the Sinclair lease was signed, Fall told Frank Kistler of the Producers and Refiners Corporation of Wyoming, that he "wasn't considering leasing Teapot Dome", but would let the oil man know if he "did decide to do so." The next Kistler heard of Teapot Dome was when he read in the papers that Sinclair had leased it.

To A. Beaty of the Texas Oil Company Fall admitted he had received a satisfactory proposition from Sinclair and didn't care to hear any others. This was a week before the lease was signed.

When it was reported to the police last night, that there was some shooting fracas on Hartman street in Clifton Flats and just outside the city, County Detective William Fleming, Constable James Ellison, Officer M. J. Young and Sanitary Officer L. S. Hoon started for the scene.

On their arrival there at the home of Carl Gardner, they found that Joe Gardner, his brother, had been having a dispute with the people of the house over a blanket, which he claimed and had thrown his suitcase through a glass door and other acts, which had resulted in his brother shooting into the air several times in an effort to get him to leave.

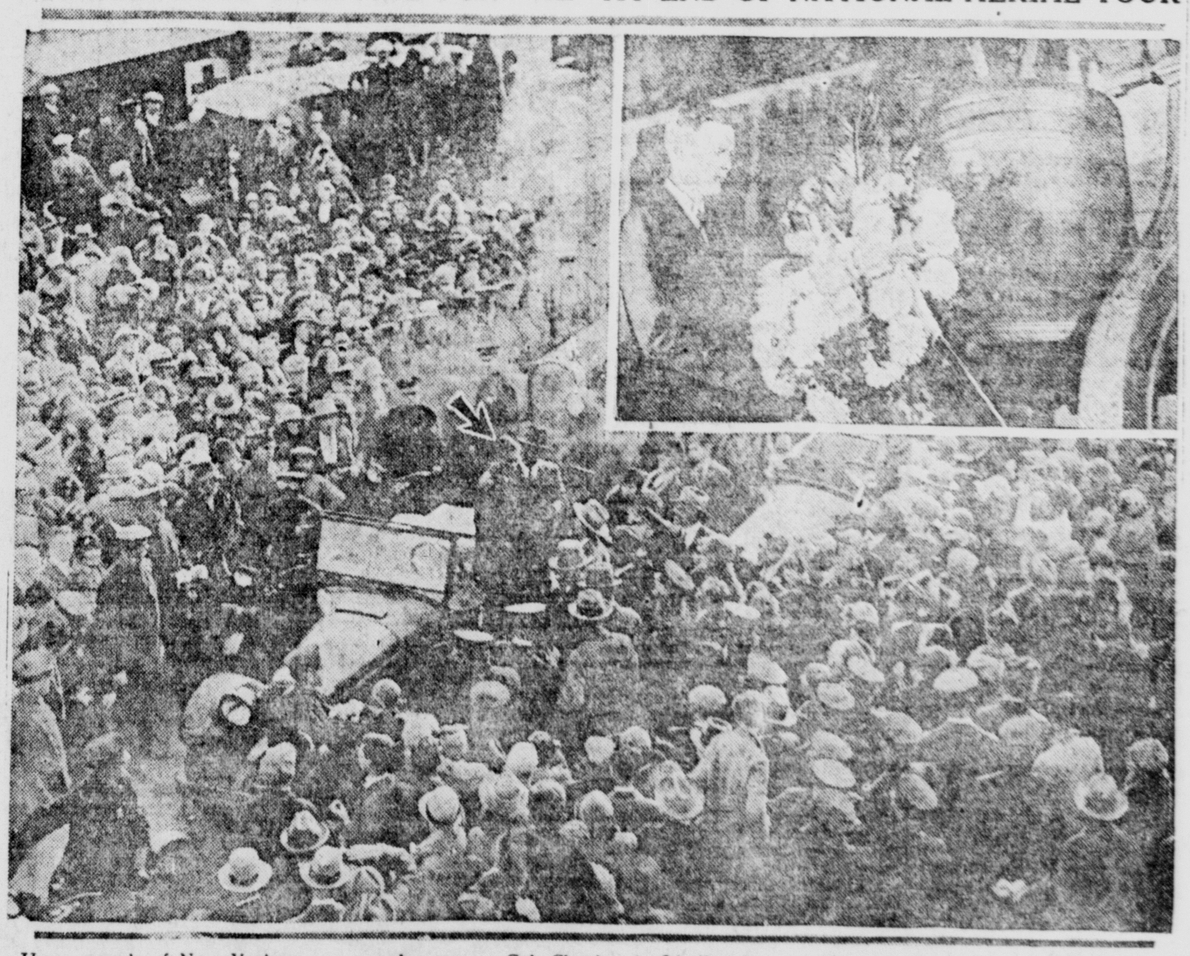

Joe was removed to the city jail and this morning, Mrs. Carl Gardner, his sister-in-law made a charge of disorderly conduct, assault and battery, etc. against him before Alderman William E. Marshall. He is being held in the city jail pending the disposition of the case.

Their injuries were not serious and they were able to return to their homes after having their injuries attended to. A third person was also injured but did not go to a hospital, as far as has been determined.

Rev. S. J. Benson of Freeport, Pa., was driving south on East Washington street and making a turn east on Butler avenue, according to the report made to the police, when a truck of the Bixler Baking company of Youngstown, O., going toward the center of the city on East Washington street, struck the former's machine, knocking the Benson machine into a truck of the Wilder-Conover company, which was going west on Butler avenue. J. Gordon Harris, driver of the Bixler truck was injured and removed to the New Castle hospital. He sustained a severe cut on the back of the head. He was able to return home after having the injury dressed. All the machines were damaged to some extent.

Dr. W. D. Cleland, of 432 Croton avenue, reported Tuesday that he was enroute east on Butler avenue, when a car bearing Pennsylvania License 597-883 going in the same direction, ran into and damaged his machine.

E. M. Botham of Matilda avenue, reported Tuesday that he was driving north on North Mill street in front of the Allen Market, when a lump of coal fell from his truck to the sidewalk, hitting a woman on the foot. PA NEWC OBSERVES

Edgewood evenue, recently paved, is another attractive thoroughfare added to the improved streets of New Castle. This street was paved with concrete and is a beautiful residential street.

Fog was so thick downtown early this morning that every building had to be lighted up as if it were night.

The Castleton stood out like a beacon last night. During the inspection every room was lighted, and the impression gained from the outside was a most striking one.

The workmen who are tossing the red hot rivets back and forth high in the structural steel work on the new First National Bank of Lawrence County building, Mercer and Washington streets, can't afford to make any errors.

Elimination of the passenger train that made the trip from New Castle to Stoneboro in the mornings, by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, has hit the mail service out of Volant hard. Some arrangement should be made for providing better mail service to the community affected by the Volant rural routes.

Now and then we see some one working the cross word puzzles in The News, at this late date. Frequently we hear it said that interest in the cross word puzzles has played completely out. How about it? Is there any demand for cross word puzzles at this time? Write to Pa Newc.

Little Stories

Seldom do the men who write for newspapers write their own activities. They either overdo it or do not do it well enough, so today instead of the editor telling the cub to put into words his explanation for a grievous mistake on the Fourth estate, at the Leslie hotel, another writer has been handed the assignment.

A printer likes to abuse the apprentice or the Devil, as he is called. The same attitude is generally displayed by the veteran toward the cub, so today we'll explain that one of the members of the staff, standing in the hotel, saw the cub approaching to cover an assignment.

Hat in hand, he approached the clerk. He asked for a certain gentleman and the clerk, through the mouthpiece of the telephone, said: "Mr. 'So', a 'gentleman' wishes to see you." The cub, probably flustered by the announcement, quickly spoke, saying:

"No, not a gentleman—a reporter."

Sure! Go ahead and say it!

Statistics recently collected in England show that the risk of being struck by lightning is five times greater in the country than in cities, and 20 times greater at sea than on a railway train.
